

COMMODORE'S FROLIC

HERE' WHAT IT IS

Our FIRST Real Sailing Season Dance—held every year at the Club House. The first chance to meet all the gang—AND HERE'S THE PAY-OFF—THERE'S A PRIZE FOR THE RIG YOU WEAR — MAYBE HALF A DOZEN PRIZES — ALL PICKED OUT BY OUR INIMITABLE GENIUS, AL COX.

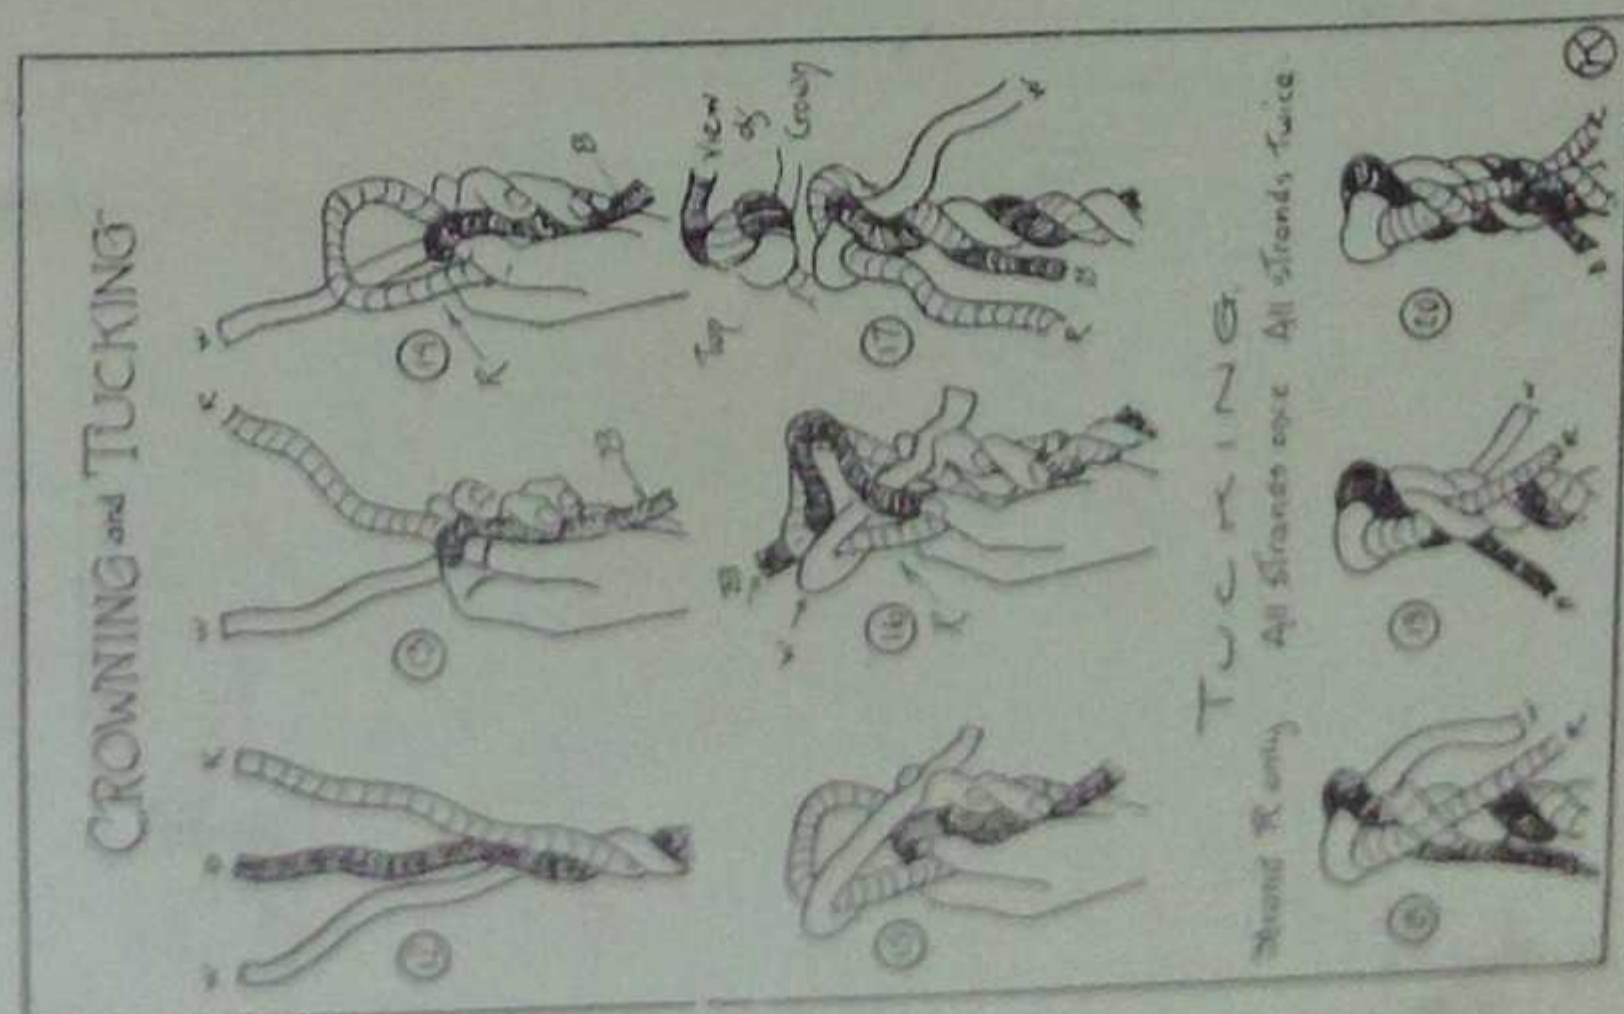

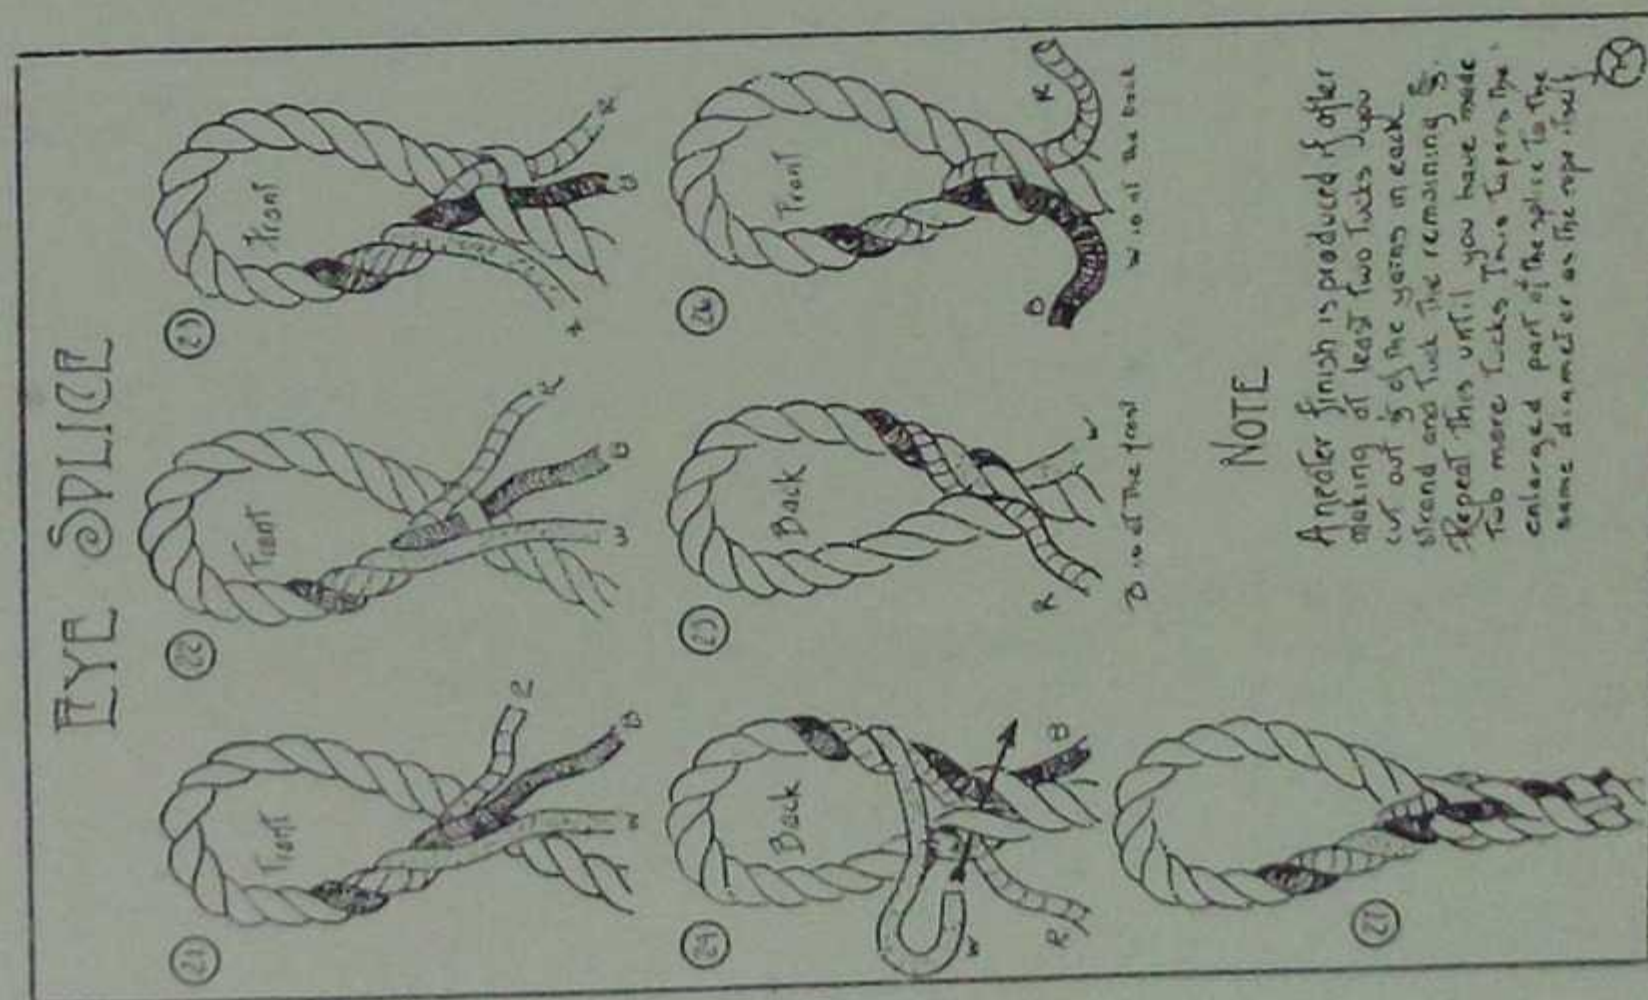

HERE'S HOW TO LOOK

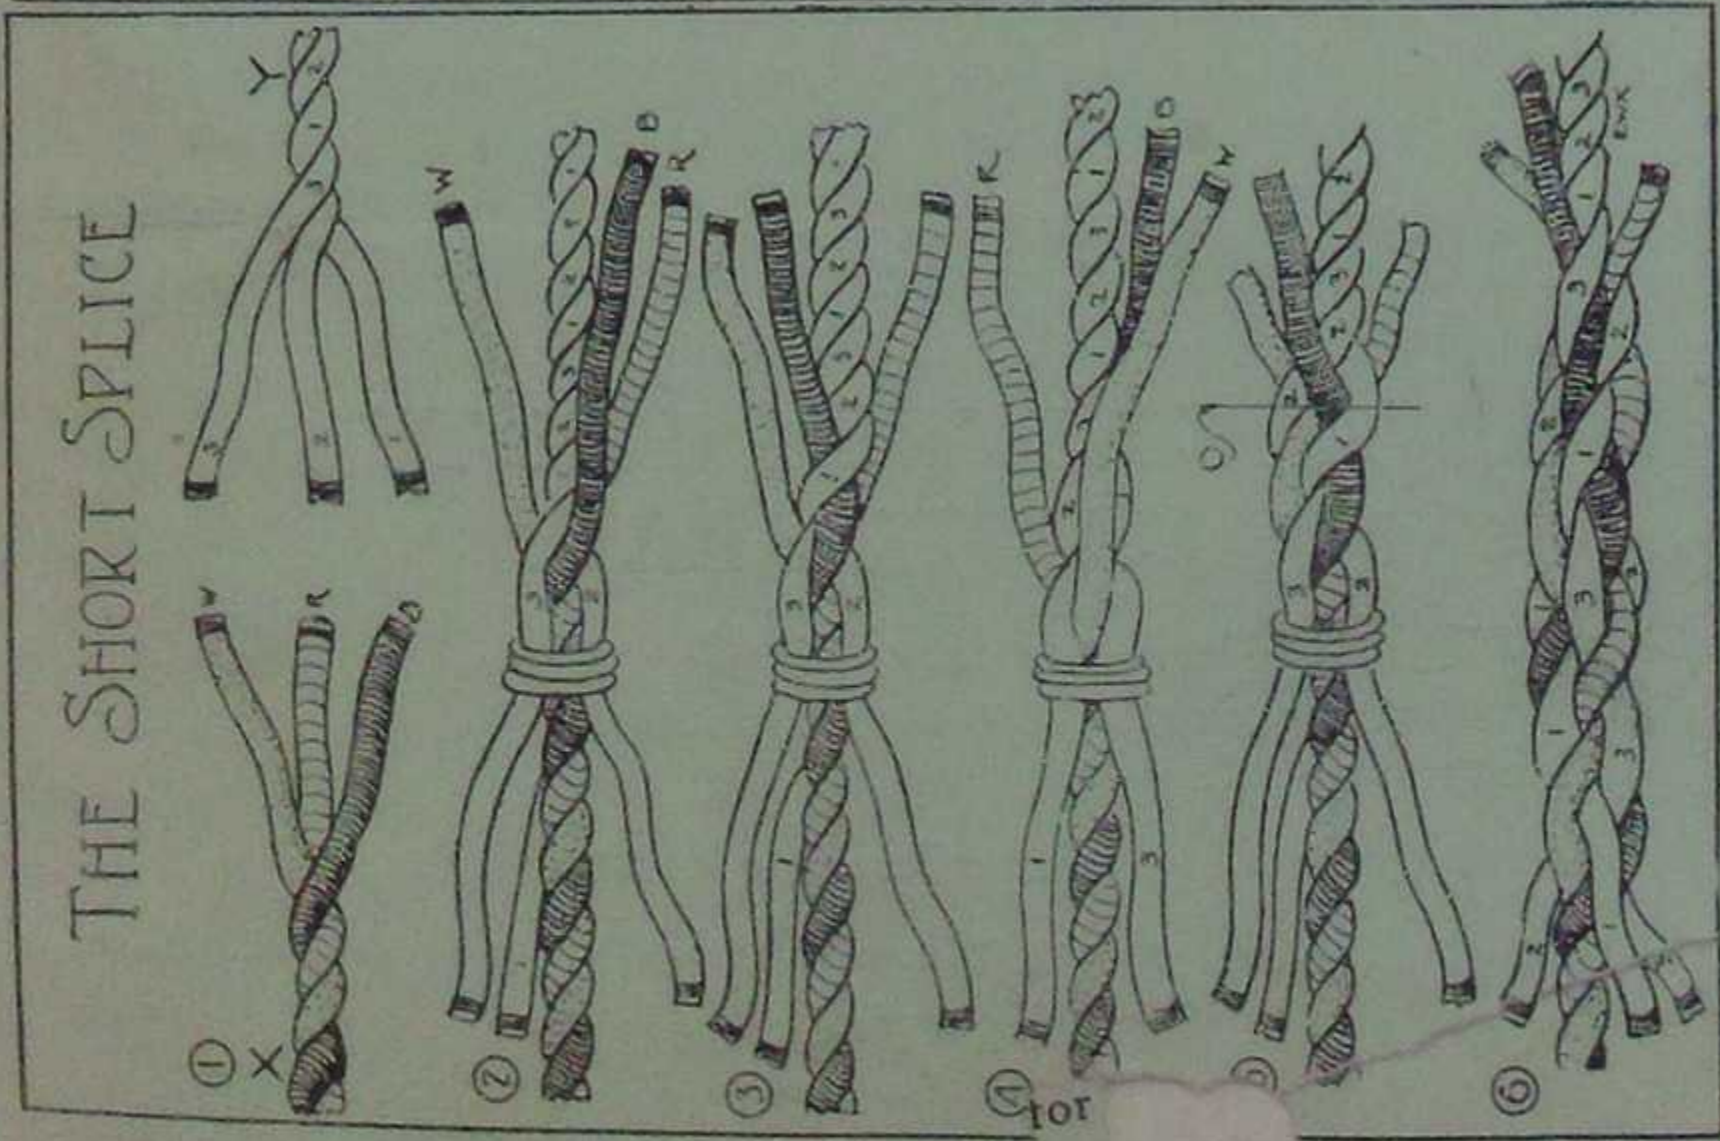

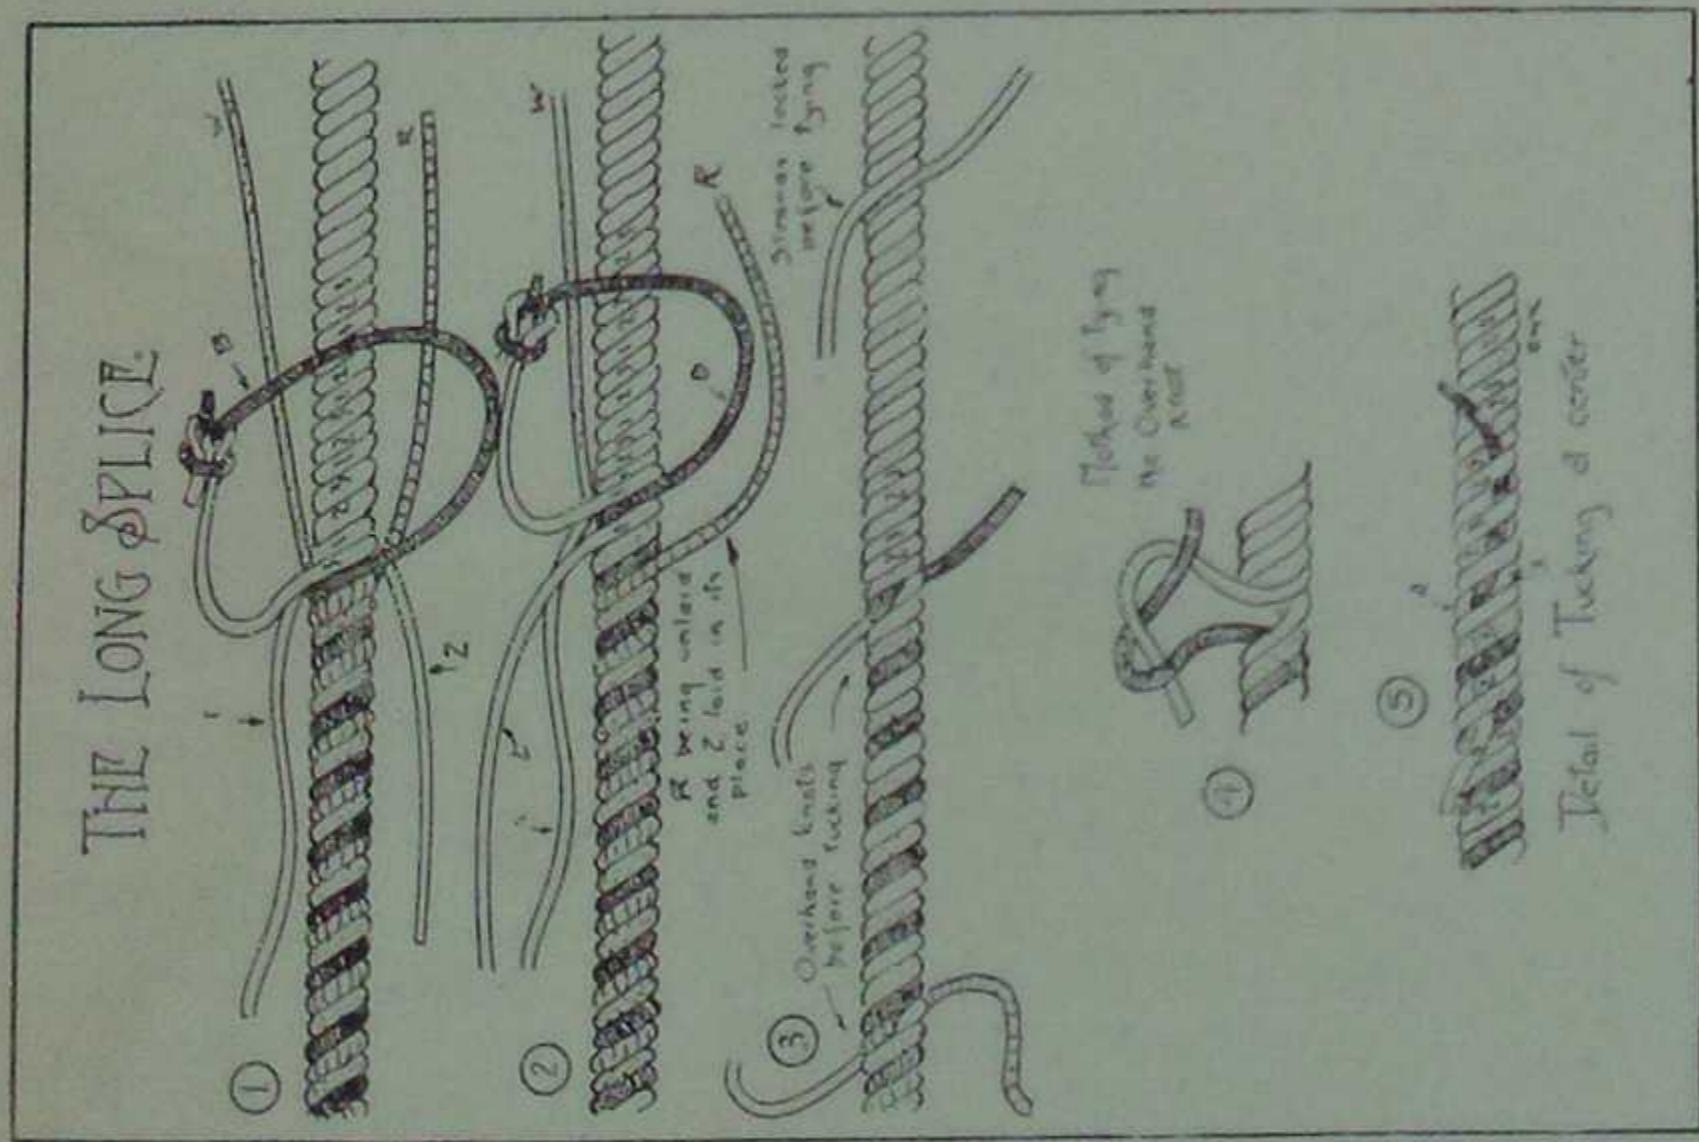

See the guy on the front cover this month? That's Jim Mitchell, the Commodore. The closer you resemble that bloke—the nearer you'll be to a prize. Don't forget the corn-cob (please don't smoke it if it smells like the Comm's).

HERE'S WHAT IT COSTS

Per Couple - $1.50 - Per Couple

NOVELTIES — PRIZES — NOVELTIES

Only two weeks before launching day, this is what the yard looked like. Boats with their covers off, skippers actively "spring cleaning". They all look quite different at their moorings.

SAILING PROGRAM UNDERWAY

Clive Eastwood, Rear Commodore, has come out with the new racing schedule. It embraces an active season with particular attention directed towards the C/B craft.

In short, the C/B sailors get twice as much racing as the keel boats. Every Wednesday night is race night for all classes. Saturday for C/B
