Queen City Yacht Club of Toronto—Phalarope, Vesta, Enid, Pet, cutter yacht.

Mr. W. E. Ward has added a topsail containing about 125 square feet to the spread of Pralarope, his thirty-footer

Toronto skiff sailors are anxiously inquiring after the prize money Commodore Walker of the Victoria Yacht Club offered for the boats finishing in the first five or six places in the Walker Cup race at Hamilton on Dominion day. The Toronto skiff Whitecap, which finished first; Escape, which came home second; Caprice, fourth; and Zip, sixth, are, according to Ald. Walker's offer entitled to cash prizes in the race.

The trial races to select a Canada's Cup defender commenced to-day at Chicago.

The Royal St. Lawrence Yacht Club late last night chose Mr. Abbott's Senneville as the defender of the Seawanhaka Cup against the Grey Friar, owned by Mr. Lorne Currie of the Islay Club, England.

Capt. "Kid" Wilds' Canada's cup boat, the Detroit, had a wild time making Chicago from Milwaukee for the trial races. After passing Kenosha a storm broke, and she was close reefed and all her head canvas doused. Even that was too much for her, and her mainsail was stowed, and she ran under bare poles. Going into Chicago harbor she was almost cut down by the steamer Marion, which missed her in the gloom by only 10 feet. Marion passed a line and towed her inside. In a brush down Chicago bay, with a 25-mile breeze blowing, Detroit and Cadillac broke even, both beating Minota, the Canadian boat, and Orion of Milwaukee.

FISHERS AT WORK AGAIN.

The Vancouver Board of Trade Effects a Settlement of the Strike.

Vancouver, July 20.—The fishermen's strike was settled to-day through the efforts of the Vancouver Board of Trade, which arbitrated between the canners and the fishermen. The settlement was effected on a basis that 12 1-2 cents per fish will be paid for a quarter of the entire pack, and 10 cents on the balance.

TORONTO LEADS BY FORTY POINTS

Manager Barrow's Team Will Play Five Games at Montreal.

The Torontos' three straight victories over Montreal have given them a commanding lead in the championship race.

Manager Barrow's men went to Montreal last night, and before they return will play five games with Charlie Dooley's aggregation, two to-day and one to-morrow, Monday, and Tuesday. Toronto will be minus the services of Outfielder Jack Haydon, who was called to his home in Philadelphia last night by the illness of his mother. "Pop" Williams will play in right field to-day and to-morrow, and Carr in the other games, Toft going to first base.

The Torontos will return on Wednesday for their big series with Rochester, and everybody will be out to see the Bronchos play. The League standing:

	Won.	Lost.	P.C.
Toronto	41	23	.641
Providence	45	30	.600
Rochester	43	29	.597
Worcester	33	35	.485
Montreal	32	38	.457
Hartford	31	38	.449
Syracuse	26	39	.400
Buffalo	26	45	.366

Games to-day: Toronto at Montreal (2), Hartford at Worcester, Syracuse at Providence, Buffalo at Rochester.

Yesterday's attendance at Diamond Park was the largest on record for a week day. There were about 2,600 people on the grounds. Ladies' Day is certainly a magnet.

President Powers has suspended Catcher McManus, who refused to accompany the Syracuse team on their last trip.

The Boston National League Club has again been gold-bricked. Dick Cooley, who was recently given his release by Manager Leonard of the Syracuse club, has been signed by Boston, and will join Selee's men on Monday. Cooley is an opium fiend and hits the pipe regularly.

Charlie Maddocks, superintendent of Diamond Park, was hit by a batted ball in yesterday's game and was knocked out for a few minutes. He was watching the game from the top on the steps leading to the south bleachers, when Bonner knocked a hard line foul in his direction. Maddocks tried to dodge the swiftly-flying sphere, but it curved directly into him, striking him with terrific force in the groin. He was precipitated headlong to the ground, a distance of about seven feet, and for a time it was thought that he was in a bad way.

GAFFNEY STILL UMPIRING.

Worcester, Mass., July 19.—Worcester made but five hits off Amole to-day, but not a hit was wasted. Three were made in the third innings, during which Buffalo made three errors and Amole hit a batsman and gave a base on balls. The combination netted five runs. Worcester's three errors were in the first innings, in which Klobedanz hit a man and gave a base on balls. Score:

"TUCK" TURNER RELEASED.

Hartford, Conn., July 19.—Hartford won the first and lost the second game to-day. The first game was a good one, the second was a horrible exhibition. Syracuse bunched hits in the fourth. An error by Bierbauer in the seventh let two runs in. Turner was released to-day. Attendance 1,500. Score by innings:

CORNWALL TEAM ARRIVED TO-DAY

Easterners in Pink of Condition for To-day's Match at Rosedale.

The Cornwall lacrosse team left Cornwall last night, and arrived here at 7.15 this morning. They are in the best of condition, and the team will be the same as defeated the Shamrocks on July 1, with the exception that Kerwin will be moved back in place of Kee, and Allan will be at outside home. This change, it is thought, will strengthen the home immensely. "Mike" Broderick, Whitely, and Eastwood are the spare men, and one of them will likely captain the team. The Torontos will make two changes in the team they lined up against the Nationals last Saturday. Her will be on again at cover-point, and Pringle will fill in at third home. Hanley will again be in the flags for the home team.

The match will begin at Rosedale sharp at 3 o'clock. "Bob" Shillington of Ottawa will referee. The teams will line up as follows:

Cornwall.	Position.	Toronto.
Hess	Goal	Hanley
White	Point	Dowling
Cameron	Cover-point	Iler
W. Broderick.	First defence	McBride
Tobin	Second defence	Stewart
Burns	Third defence	Lambe
Degan	Center	Mara
Madden	Third home	Querrie
J. Broderick.	Second home	Taylor
Kerwin	First home	Pringle
Allan	Outside home	Graydon
Seymour	Inside home	Greatrix

CANADA'S NATIONAL GAME.

—Tecumsehs play at Paris to-day.

—Tecumsehs II. and Brampton are scheduled to play in Brampton to-day.

—The Shamrocks and Capitals play at Ottawa to-day. Toronto enthusists don't care which team wins.

—Cookstown defeated the Tottenham team yesterday in a junior C. L. A. match by 5 to 2. D. McMillan of Beaverton refereed.

—The new center-second chronometer brought over from the Old Country by President John Ross Robertson of the O. H. A. will be tried at the lacrosse match to-day.

—Orillia and the Cannington Black Knights played a scheduled game in the intermediate C. L. A. series yesterday, Cannington defeating the visitors by a score of 6 goals to 2.

CANADIAN OARSMEN WON ALL THEIR RACES

Len Marsh of the Dons and C. W. Johnston of Winnipeg Qualify in Senior Singles—Winnipeg Eight Won the Trial Heat and Final in a Great Race.

"Philadelphia, July 19.

"Canada should be proud of her oarsmen's performance here to-day, Winnipeg winning their trial and final in the intermediate eight, and Johnstone, the Winnipeg entry, and Marsh of the Dons winning the two trial heats for the association singles in hollow fashion. The critics look for a punishing finish in the senior eight between Argonauts and the champion Vesper outfit, but very little Vesper money at better than even. Our crew is perfectly fit."

"W. M. Bright,
"Argonaut Rowing Club."

Philadelphia, July 19.—Under conditions that could not be improved upon the first day's races of the twenty-ninth anual regatta of the National Association of Amateur Oarsmen were held on the Schuylkill River, in Fairmount Park, this afternoon, and the initial day's sport was in every way a success. Winnipeg carried off the honors, while St. Louis, Worcester, Toronto, Philadelphia, Detroit, and New York each had men placed. The Canadians won everything in which they were entered. All the races were a mile and a half with a turn, with the exception of the eights, which were rowed straight away for the same distance. In the heats the first two qualifieed.

THE INTERMEDIATE EIGHTS.

The regatta opened with the trial heats of the intermediate eight-oared shells. The Malta Boat Club, Winnipeg, and West Philadelphia competed in the first heat. The Maltas secured the lead at the start, but it was never more than half a length, the others crews being on even terms. Near the trolley bridge, the half-way mark, Coxswain Logan of the Winnipegs called on his crew for a spurt. The Manitobans hit their stroke up to 40 and in the next quarter of a mile put open water between themselves and the Maltas, rowing in perfect form, and gradually increased their lead, going across the line two lengths ahead of the Maltas, who were the same distance ahead of West Philadelphia.

The second heat was a grand struggle between the two representatives from Gotham, the New York Athletic Club and the Nonpareil Rowing Club, for second place. The Fairmount Rowing Association crew was never headed after they had taken the lead at the end of the first quarter mile, the Nonpareils being unable to hold the slight lead they secured at the start. It was nip and tuck betweeen the New Yorkers all the way, with New York A. C. taking second place by a few feet.

The crews then rested until everybody else was through, when they came out for the final struggle. The event was desperately contested, and the thousands of persons along the course cheered the oarsmen every time they dipped their blades into the river. Winnipeg had the east station, with Malta next; then came Fairmount, and the New York A. C. was on the west side. Fairmount caught the water first, but the Maltas quickly overcame this advantage, and a hundred yards from the start got the bow of their shell in front. The Maltas, Fairmount, and Winnipegs had a desperate contest for the lead, with the New Yorks, with their famous English stroke, losing ground continually. The Maltas continued to hold their slight advantage to the trolley bridge, three-quarters of a mile from the start, but Winnipeg managed to secure second place at this point. At the half-way point scarcely half a length separated the three boats. The Fairmounts then recovered some of their lost ground by a well-timed spurt, but they were unable to [illegible] up to forty, and foot by foot they crawled up on the Maltas. The latter were caught half a mile from the finish, but they stuck to their work manfully. It was impossible, however, to hold the great crew from Winnipeg, who, rowing in beautiful style, without a break of any kind, splendidly steered by Coxswain Logan, crossed the finishing line two lengths ahead of the Maltas, who were a length ahead of the Fairmounts, while the New Yorks were beaten by fully eight lengths. The time, 7.56 1-4, was simply remarkable, and speaks volumes for the ability of the Manitobans, who are undoubtedly one of the best crews ever seen on the Schuylkill.

TORONTOS WON EASILY.

Len Marsh of the Dons, Toronto, easily defeated Jas. Bond of Philadelphia in the first heat of the association singles. C. W. Johnstone of Winnipeg won the second heat in much faster time. The only unfortunate incident was the disqualification of C. S. Titus of the Union Boat Club of New York. Titus finished second in this heat, after he and C. W. Johnstone had outrowed Juvenal of the Vespers by several lengths. Titus failed to turn his buoy, and he was disqualified.

The surprise of the afternoon was the defeat of the Vesper senior four, composed of members of the world's champion crew, by the St. Louis four. Ten Eyck and Lewis had no trouble in the senior double. The intermediate double shell event was also rowed in heats. In the first trial the visiting crews captured both the places from the Crescents and the Vespers. The Detroit crew won out by a length and a half from the New York A. C., with Crescents a close third. The Harlem Rowing Club of New York city had a row over in the second heat, the Maltas and the Atlantas declining the issue. Summary:

SENIOR PAIRS.

Final heat—Vesper B. C. of Philadelphia, first; Detroit R. C. of Detroit, second; Western R. C. of St. Louis, third. Time, 9.44.

ASSOCIATION SINGLES.

THREE STRAIGHTS FOR TORONTOS

Montreal Badly Beaten in the Final Game of the Series at Diamond Park—Great Team Play of the Locals, on the Field and at the Bat.

Toronto 12, Montreal 2.

The Bees showed their class before 2,600 people at Diamond Park yesterday afternoon by taking the third straight game from the Birds in ridiculously easy fashion. The visitors played like amateurs trying to get their release. The infield went to pieces at critical moments, until Charley Dooley's head fairly dizzied with Suppressed Anger, with an Admixture of Genuine Disgust. He afterwards informed them that he was paying them good money for playing ball, not for giving exhibitions as the Human Sieves.

The erratic pitching of the elongated Dan McFarlan had much to do with the ragged work of the Montreal team. McFarlan was as wild as the traditional hawk, and when he did get them over the plate the Torontos batted the ball all over the lot. It was a picnic for the Bees, although McFarlan's inshoots were always a source of danger to right-hand batters. McFarlan's most remarkable feat was performed in the third innings. He retired the side on strikes, didn't give his team a chance to field the ball so as to get a put out, hit two batters, and was batted safely four times, four runs scoring.

On the other hand, "Pop" Williams pitched in his best form. He never extended himself to the limit, but always had something up his sleeve. In the ninth innings he let loose and struck two men out, just to show how much he had left. The Torontos played snappy, aggressive ball all the time, Hargrove contributing a magnificent running catch in the third innings. The team play of the locals at the bat was a revelation to the crowd, and, under Manager Barrow's direction, they "played the game" to the finish.

Toronto failed to score in the first innings, although Hayden and Carr both got on base. Bruce's single, Hargrove's bunt, and Williams' hit scored a run in the second. With one out in the third Carr hit safely, Bonner singled to center, and Bruce drove a bounder to left, scoring a run. Hargrove struck out, but both Schaub and Bemis were struck by pitched balls, and a tally was forced in. Williams singled and two more runs scored. Haydon fanned, making the last out. Bannon, first up in the fourth, was hit by the pitcher, and Carr bunted, reaching first safely, as Rauh stood like a dummy on the line holding the ball. Bonner bunted just as a double steal started, and McFarlan's throw to third was too late to catch Bannon. With the bases full, Bruce was called out on strikes. Hargrove hit safely, scoring two runs, and Schaub stopped an incurve with his body. Bemis contributed a hit, Hargrove crossing the plate. Bruce's hit brought in another in the fifth. Hits by Haydon and Carr increased the score to ten in the seventh, and in the last innings Hargrove's single, a steal, a base on balls, and two wild pitches were responsible for two easy runs.

Montreal scored but two runs. Wilson's hit, Sheehan's sacrifice, and Delehanty's double gave them a run in the first innings. In the seventh Sheehan's drive to right for three bases and Johnson's single scored their second and last counter. Summary:

PATRICK HAYES KILLED.

Torontonian Found Dead on the Railway Tracks Near Vancouver.

Vancouver, July 20.—The body of Patrick Hayes was found on the C. P. R. track early this morning. It is supposed he was run over by a freight train. The deceased was a native of Toronto, and about 27 years of age.

HIS LUTE IS SILENT.

London, July 20.—Alfredo Piatti, the composer and violoncellist, died yesterday at Bergamo, Italy. He was born in 1822.

BASEBALL BREVITIES.

—Rochester here next Wednesday.

—The team play of the Torontos is perfect.

Hargrove is great on the long drives to center.

—Toronto will miss Haydon to-day. He was a hard worker.

—Capt. Bonner has his team working in splendid shape. He puts all kinds of ginger into his men.

—How did I beat them Mun-tree-alls yestiddy? Too easy. I had a new curve, with a swing on it I uster git on a mower.—From the Pastorals of Pop Williams.

—Casey's judgment in bunting in the eighth inning, with the bases full and two out, was a rare piece of baseball wisdom. With a fielder playing third and the chance of a mistake at such a critical stage Casey worked an old Baltimore dodge and got away with it. —Detroit News.

—Dan McFarlan's record for one game: Innings pitched, 8; at bat, opponents, 36; runs, 12; hits, 15; bases on balls, 1; hit by pitched ball, 6; struck out, 7; wild pitches, 2, errors, 1.

—Overheard on the street car: "Are you going to the game, Mike?" "I am, Pat." "Are you going in on a lithography ticket?" "No, I am not. I am going in on a Queen's head on a good Canadian quarter; not like you, going in on a piece of pasteboard with Eddie Mack's picture on it."

—One in a while things happen. None can tell
When oddities will frontward come, or when
Deeds utterly impossible will go on record.
Strange are the lives and short careers of men.
Who would have dreamed of telephones, or even gas,
In days when Wellington gained deathless fame?
Or who would for a moment fancy that
The Stars of Syracuse would win a game?

CRICKET MATCHES TO-DAY.

Chatham Defeated Aylmer Tourists Yesterday 110 to 51—Montreal's Tour in the West.

—Chatham defeated the Aylmer tourists yesterday by 110 to 51.

—Montreal cricketers will leave on Tuesday evening, and will play the following matches: Rosedale C. C., at Toronto, July 24th; Parkdale C. C., at Toronto, July 25th; Toronto C.
