Therefore the Shamrocks stand more than a chance. As the Shamrocks have now won the shield two years in succession, they are entitled to keep it.

Won From Weston.

The Intermediate Shamrocks also did valiantly at Weston on Saturday, holding the Weston team down to a tie score of two goals each. Last year Weston defeated the green shirted lads on the latter's own grounds by 5 to 0, and the reversal contes as a pleasant surprise. The Weston team, through the medium of that town's local paper, has been issuing valiant challenges of late, and Saturday's game is calculated to have rudely jarred their nerves. About five hundred people turned out to see the game and it was a hard and fast one. There were bits of rough play, Joe Mc-noting a desire to engage in the manly art of fisticuffs. Garret Rowntree was also sent off for persisting in kicking the ball after he had lost his stick.
