

WALKER CUP RACE TO BE SAILED HERE

Aftermath of the Lake Sailing Skiff Association Regatta.

The Walker Cup race for 18-footers, which was postponed at the L.S.S.A. regatta at Oakville because it blew a little too fresh for some of the boats, will be sailed off in Toronto under the auspices of the Queen City Yacht Club, which club controls the trophy race by reason of Whitecap's victory last summer. An attempt will be made to have it pulled off at Hamilton, but the Old Boys' reunion in August, but there is no chance.

There was no adequate reason for postponing that race. True the crews of some boats would have liked their lives had they gone out, but the Association, by stating the race, does not compel a boat to go out. The L.S.S.A. rules were made with the idea of compelling the construction of boats that are safe in any weather. If some members persist in building light-weather boats that cannot stand the pounding of a sea or sit up in a breeze, why let them? They can win in light weather, but if a man has a boat that can weather a gale, and a gale is blowing at starting-time, he is entitled to be allowed to race, and even if he has a fall-out, he is entitled to the trophy. There would be just as much reason in calling off a race because it blew four inches an hour, and those who owned big-bowled boats tied up in the dock and refused to race because they had no chance.

Commander Walker of the Victoria Yacht Club tries to lay the blame for the postponement of the race on E. K. M. Wedd, ex-President of the L.S.S.A., who was the other judge, but Mr. Wedd was out sailing a skiff, whose owner did not care to take a chance. Wedd would have said if he had an opponent if he had to stick the job behind the mast.

What is the Association trying to breed anyhow? Flip boats and fair-weather sailors?

No! What the L.S.S.A. wants is men who can keep the boats right side up with care in any weather and boats that will sit up in a breeze.

The Cawalk Cup race on Tuesday was delayed a half an hour because one boat was not ready. In that fall the other boats were ready. Other boats sailed without racing numbers in direct violation of the rules, and were awarded their places. Is that right? If it is, why not condone the foul committed by Dick Sleg when Attempt's boat in a puff struck a course buoy? Some of the officials did not know a foul from a reef point, nor whether the right-of-way rule was kept to right and left on the left. There were fouls at the start, but that were not noticed. What is the use of rules if they are not observed?

Blind you, in spite of all this little rub and the mere fact that the races are held either in Toronto or Hamilton, a free affair, when the sailors fraternize and fight over old battles. In Oakville outsiders put their hands on the park in the name of the association, and charged all who went in a quarter. The tent put up by the Association for the benefit of their places. Is that right? If it is, why not condone the foul committed by Dick Sleg when Attempt's boat in a puff struck a course buoy? Some of the officials did not know a foul from a reef point, nor whether the right-of-way rule was kept to right and left on the left. There were fouls at the start, but that were not noticed. What is the use of rules if they are not observed?

There will be a change in the way L.S.S.A. affairs are run next year, says the Q. C. Y. C. and N. Y. and S. C. clubs of Toronto will finally drop out of the L.S.S.A. and form the new Victoria Yacht Club (Hamilton) boys.

President Birely and Secretary H. P. Farrell of the Association works hard to get the L.S.S.A. affairs in order. They left nothing undone they had time to look after, but they were unfortunate in the choice of some officials. A sailing association should have been procured, and then things would have been properly handled.

Mayor Kelly of Oakville made himself a nuisance among the boys. He knew half a dozen by name before they left the harbor.

"Come back again next year, boys," was his usual salutation to the officers. Al. Chisholm, too, echoed the chief magistrate's invitation.

Tot, the Hamilton sidewalk, with blue-boards, is a failure. She finished absolutely last. She has three boards, but only uses the center one. She could not get the necessary area, but she did not wind with a 50-pound board in each side and so put a 100-pound board in her center.

Mathew's boat of the Hamilton fleet, a big well-sided hog-backed boat, surprised the spectators the way she sailed.

The National Yacht and Skiff Club's fleet showed its way home to the Toronto harbor in the holiday sail. McIntyre and Dreyfus's 20-footer Active was first out, with G. S. Ellis' Glaucus had after her. Then came the crew of the Royal Flush, Hamilton, which she coped in Wednesday's sail. He rounded his skiff, Shogela, right upon the overturned craft before she was pulled out by the Hamilton men on board, and was away before the rollers ran a chance at his boat. The N. Y. and S. C. will give him a Maltese cross flag for his work.

One of the prettiest bits of work of the entire regatta was the pick-up Oliver Springer of the National Yacht and Skiff Club, made of the crew of the Royal Flush, Hamilton, when she coped in Wednesday's sail. He rounded his skiff, Shogela, right upon the overturned craft before she was pulled out by the Hamilton men on board, and was away before the rollers ran a chance at his boat. The N. Y. and S. C. will give him a Maltese cross flag for his work.

The sixteen-footers and dinghies are a domed class. In spite of three years of competition's best will be a lot of little deep-draft knockabouts, something after the style of Wap, Graylings, Wairi, and Helen of the Hamilton fleet.

Arrow, of the N. Y. O. S. C. fleet, broke her tiller coming down, and had to lay to to make repairs.

Schofield's Otter, a 20-foot Toronto yawl, presented a pretty sight when she tried to make the harbor Tuesday at one o'clock. She was carrying full canvas, and it was blowing a gale. She was in the harbor when she got a puff and went down to her cabin top. The crew crawled out on her ribs and she rolled up into the wind's eye and straightened up. Schofield got her going again and beat out a pretty exhibition by reaching Toronto's cauxas as he pulled into the creek.

A much-admired boat at the meet is Geo. Allen's "Feather," the crew of the Hamilton, a 20-footer under the new rules. She was designed by George Owen, and is as fast a boat as any, and is as fast a boat as any, and is as fast a boat as any.

Concrete Tailoring

WE are Wholesale Tailors!

This means that we make hundreds of suits to the "trying-on" stage, under one roof, for every single suit produced by the next largest Tailoring house.

We import cloth in thousand piece lots, and so can control, for Canada, many of the season's best designs.

We mould these cloths with the needle, not merely with the pressing-iron, and we "stay" all the parts so thoroughly that they retain shape indefinitely, and can be rejuvenated at any time, by the Valet.

Our tailors are specialists on different suit parts, viz.—on collars, sleeves, shoulders, etc., and thus produce better results at lower cost.

We can match patterns at the seams, more perfectly and with less waste than the Custom Tailor, because we turn out twenty suits to his one from each pattern.

You need not wait a week to have the cloth made up, and you can pre-empt Semi-ready expression at the "trying-on" stage before you buy.

Finished to order in about two hours.—Money back for any cause.

TORONTO MEN FOR OUTSIDE RACES

Joe Wright and Don Mackenzie to Row Double in Canadian Henley.

Through the water is still stirred up in Hamilton's Point Ingoton from the Dominion Day Regatta, local oarsmen are already preparing for the Canadian Henley at St. Catharines, August 7-9, and the National at Worcester the week following.

In the Canadian the Argos will have a junior double, consisting of Jones and Johnson and Fulton will row in the junior singles. The victorious junior four, Forrest, Rice, Miller, Riddout, will also row, but the senior four will likely be changed, because Boyd and Hoyle are both going away on their holidays.

The Argos will also have a senior double in the Canadian regatta. It has not yet been definitely picked, but will probably consist of Joe Wright and Don Mackenzie. The senior eight will also visit St. Catharines in the hope of a brush with one of the good American eights.

Dixon Bros., who won the junior doubles on the holiday, will likely pull in the intermediate class.

The Toronto crew will have a heavier four in the junior class. They already have a dozen candidates for the crew. Lou Scholes and Frank Smith will row senior single and double at both the National and Canadian Henley regatta, and young Walter Oberstner, who won the junior singles on the holiday, will row in the intermediate class.

The Dons have been saving W. B. P. Graham for the junior singles in the Canadian regatta, and if Len Marsh rounds into any sort of shape he will be entered in both regattas. They will also send over their senior four.

"There is no chance of the club getting an eight-oared shell this season, but we will have it next year, all right," remarked Secretary Levy of the club last night.

NEWS-LETTER WAS IN EVIDENCE

Orillia, July 4.—The most prominent factors in the Orillia Canoe Club regatta were the Curran brothers. They won four firsts and several seconds. Orillia and Trondyke war canoe crews put up a nice hot-mile race. The Orillia crew won.

Ex-Champion Sculler of the World in Toronto on a Visit—Wouldn't Mind Another Race.

Jack Gaudaur, of Rac Portage, ex-champion sculler of the world, will remain a week. The big fellow is in good shape and looks the part. He says he will be glad to race. The changes in his boat and a warm climate to train in.

TRIALS OF THE SHAMROCKS.

New York, July 4.—Shamrock 1 was crippled in her trial with Shamrock III yesterday, but at that picked up a lucky slant of wind and finished only four minutes behind the new boat. The new boat beat the old one 5:20 in 26 miles, when the older boat lost her topkail by the breaking of the yard. It took 18 minutes to repair the damage. The changes in ballast made in Shamrock III, have depreciated her speed. She only beat Shamrock I, 4:30 in a 25-mile run and 4 minutes in a 12-mile close race.

BRANTFORD HERE NEXT WEEK.

The champion Brantford team, the Match Cup winners, will play a C. L. A. match at Haslea's Point with the Trunshaw's.

BOUQUETS FOR THE ARGONAUTS.

From New York Herald.

Probably the best race of the day at the American Henley at Philadelphia was the first eight-oared shell, or senior, contest. Attracting as it did two college crews, Yale and Pennsylvania, the Union Boat Club, crew of winners, and the year's Harvard varsity eight, and the famed Argonauts of Toronto, it contained quality enough to satisfy the most exacting.

Three attempts were made to get these crews away. At the first attempt one of the Pennsylvanians slipped his seat on the first stroke, and the crews were recalled. Upon the occasion of the second try at starting Farmer, No. 4 in the Argonaut crew, broke his footrace just as they had begun to pull.

Almost from the first dip of the oars the Canadians showed the way, and, hitting up a space-devouring thirty-eight, they were soon a length to the good, with Yale and Pennsylvania slowly drawing away from the others.

The Argonauts slowed down to thirty-six between the half and three-quarter mile, and still continuing to gain, further increased the stroke to thirty-four. It remained simply a question as to how much they would win by, and three lengths was the judged decision.

The battle for second honors filled the eye of nearly every one. The "freshies" from New Haven, paced during the early stages of the struggle by the unbeaten oarsmen from over the border, managed to pull together splendidly, while the "blue and red" boys were somewhat ragged in their work. At this time the Yalians were falling hopelessly behind, with apparently no chance.

During the last half of this battle royal a worthy journey to witness. Both oarswains bobbed together. Somewhat favored by the west shore, and steering a splendid course, Muzzy, the Yale coxswain got his men over the line 12 seconds ahead of "Penny," with the Yalians beaten off.

The time of the Canadians was said to be very fast, and it was openly declared that the crew would not have made the journey from Toronto had it not been for the rubber in case of necessity.

Kissinger has pitched exceptionally good ball for Toronto and has become a great favorite with the fans because of his genial ways. He likes Toronto, too, and may object to going back to Detroit.

E. MCNICHOLO RACING AGAIN.

Everett McNichol, one of the men who used to keep the "red team" of the Toronto Canoe Club on the front in the "red team" has been enticed into the game again by a lucky chance. Jacobs, Vaughan could not get away to go to the A. C. A. meet at Brockville on the holiday, so McNichol was persuaded to do a bit of light cloth and take Vaughan's place in the "Trinity" four and in the war canoe events. Now he has got the racing blood flowing again, and it will be hard to keep him from showing up on the buoyed course when the time has his watch in his hand and the starter stands ready to let him go. McNichol used to paddle with his brother in the single and double blade tandems, and the pair were always hard to beat.

FATHER AND SON PLAY BALL.

Jim O'Rourke and "Sonny Jim" on the Same Team at Bridgeport.

New Haven, Conn., July 4.—For the first time in professional baseball history father and son are on the payroll of the same club and are playing the game together. They are James Henry O'Rourke, the famous old New York fielder, and his son, James H. O'Rourke, Jr., who has been Yale's star infielder for two years.

Jimmy the younger has just joined the Bridgeport, Conn. League, of which his father is owner. He played third base yesterday and to-day the regularly scheduled games of the club, thereby sacrificing his amateurship, resigning his membership in the Yale team, and forfeiting hope of playing college baseball again. Jimmy has another year before he receives his Yale school diploma. His father has always been known in the game as "Jim." The boy will be called "Sonny Jim." The Yale baseball coaches are cut up badly over the defection of Jimmy O'Rourke, Jr., from college baseball ranks.

"COUNT" CAMPAU RESIGNS.

New Orleans, July 3.—The resignation of Manager Campeau of the New Orleans baseball team has been accepted as a result of a long string of defeats.

BUFFALO'S NEW PLAYER.

Buffalo, July 3.—Manager Stallings of Buffalo is signing a new player, Ed Shearon, formerly of Baltimore and Rochester. Stallings needs about eight more a great deal better than Shearon.

DETROIT RECALLS RUBE KISSINGER

Manager Barrow Wants to Use the Big Pitcher in His Own Club.

Detroit, July 4.—Pitcher "Rube" Kissinger, who has been farmed out to Toronto since the early part of the season, has been recalled by Manager Barrow of the Detroit club, and the Adrian boy may be seen in one of the games of the Philadelphia series.

"Rube" has been doing first-class work for Toronto, the only games he has lost being where his side has been shut out. The recall is the natural sequence of the failure of the Detroit club to secure Pitcher Wolfe of Toronto in exchange for the season's use of Yeager.

From present indications the possession of Kissinger and Yeager appears about as valuable as that of Wolfe for Detroit, and there are no special signs that the deal is off.

ST. ALBAN'S CATHEDRAL SCHOOL.

St. Alban's Cathedral School has just brought to a close a most successful cricket season. Out of eighteen matches played by the first eleven 12 were won, 4 drawn, and only 1 lost. Two matches were played with St. Andrew's College, the first being drawn and the second won by St. Alban's. The Toronto Church School, Ridley College, Trinity College J. I., and two Collegiate Institute teams were among those that had to succumb to the eleven. Out of six matches played with the various clubs of Upper Canada College 3 were won, 2 drawn, and 1 lost. Only on four occasions did the opposing eleven make over 50 runs against St. Alban's. The second eleven also played five matches, of which 4 were won and 1 drawn. Among the games beaten by them were Toronto Church School second eleven, Upper Canada College Preparatory School, and the Model School. C. Flint gained the hat for the highest bowling average, which was 2.56 runs per wicket, and H. Davidson was awarded the school trophy cup for the highest batting average, which was 38.7 runs per 100 balls.
