Representatives of various European Powers Demand Protection for Foreigners

Sofia, Bulgaria, Aug. 14.—The Bulgarian Government is preparing a memorandum to the powers, giving statistics of the acts of oppression by the Turkish officials in Macedonia since the institution of the reform program three months ago, and other evidence in support of Bulgaria's belief in the hopelessness of expecting any good result from the Russo-Austrian reform plan.

But before the man could free the line, he was pulled into the water. He was rescued by a policeman. When the crate went in a couple of other boxes followed. They were not recovered.

Rev. James W. Lee, D.D., pastor of St. John's Methodist Episcopal Church, of St. Louis, Mo., who is taking his vacation trip through Canada, called at the Methodist Mission Rooms yesterday on his way through the Eastern Provinces. Dr. Lee has recently dedicated his new church which is considered one of the finest church edifices in United States Methodism.

AT THE BEACHES.

Balmy Beach

Mr. Fred Lyonde promises that his attraction at the Street Fair will be the best ever. His Temple of Mystery will contain the living head, the fattest man in the world, and also the fattest baby, eleven skeels, and a fortune teller, a clairvoyant, a fortune teller, and a dozen other specialties. His Chamber of Horrors will be guarded by Mephistopheles, who will usher you into the dread darkness.

The "fair" will have twenty-two tents on the street, and there will be two bands—not one, as announced yesterday. A jolly party of Balmy Beachers picnicked at the cliffs yesterday, chaperoned by Mrs. Ferby. Among those present were: Mrs. Martin of Boston, Mrs. Kadler, the Misses Ferby, the Misses Lapatinoff, Miss Helen Sadler, Miss Mow, at, Miss Esie Ross, and Mrs. Charles Simmons, Dave Lander, Stephen Searle, Jack Ross, and Mr. McCallum. Mr. Searle has two valuable diamond rings in the water. The party sailed down in two boats, and had a most enjoyable time.

The Misses Foy, of "Hazelhurst," Beech avenue, have issued invitations for a straw ride and dance next Wednesday evening. There will be two hay wagons to take the party for a drive in the country. The party will wind up with a dance at "Hazelhurst."

Among the new arrivals at "The Pines" yesterday were: Mr. Heverson of California, Miss Scamner of New York, and Miss Rowe and party of five from New York. "The Pines" have been enjoying a good patronage this season, keeping the rooms well filled.

Miss Ethel Doherty of Howard avenue and her guests, Miss Roche of Buffalo, entertained last night. Among those present were: Miss May Wheaton and her guests, Miss Bessy and Miss Bowen of St. Catharines, Miss May McConnell, Mr. Frank Wheaton, Mr. J. B. Matthews, and others. Nearly a hundred working women, who have their children at "The Croche" while they are at work, were entertained by Mrs. Moss, the wife of Chief Justice Moss, at Munro Park yesterday.

The guests of the Gardiner House are enjoying good fishing. Mr. Oliver Only of Columbus, O., made a big catch of black bass, pike, and perch yesterday in Ashbridge's bay. Mr. F. W. Roberts, who injured his foot recently, is able to walk a little now.

Mr. Clifford Marshall, who is with a crowd of boys at Victoria Park, spent two weeks at Port Sandfield, Muskoka, returning yesterday. He expects to complete his vacation in New York.

A large party from both beaches are going to the I. A. A. tonight. Mr. Bruce Murray and Mr. Frank Birchall returned yesterday from a pleasant two weeks on the St. Lawrence and other Quebec points.

Kew Beach.

The Beach from Leuty ave. to Waverly road was crowded last night to see the continuation of the water sports. But three events took place—the girls' rescue race, boys' double scull, and the ladies' and gentlemen's canoe race.

Miss Nora Moon and Miss G. Forbes won the rescue race, with Miss Annie Smith and Miss Gertrude Gemmill second, while Miss Grace Spanner and Miss Myrtle Campbell finished third. The double scull prize for boys under sixteen was captured by Charlie Turner and W. Bates; H. Ellis and A. Knox got second, the third prize going to C. Maile and Herman Hughes.

There was quite a mix-up in the canoe race for ladies and gentlemen, and many fouls, but no protests were entered. Miss Dorothy Hughes and her brother, Harry, finished first, with Miss Purkis and Cammie Forbes second, the third prize going to Miss Annie Smith and R. Austin. Little Charlie Babbington was stung by a wasp yesterday, and went into convulsions. Dr. Campbell attended him, and soon had him resting quietly.

Miss Lulu Smith is the guest of her uncle, Dr. Wagner, in Muskoka. Mr. Reginald Kinross is also spending his holidays with him. Miss Florence McConnell and Mr. Stanley Banks defeated Miss Annie Smith and Mr. J. B. Matthews in the mixed doubles tennis tournament yesterday afternoon.

Four rinks from Balmy Beach will play on the local green to-morrow. The outcome of the bowling tournament is awaited with great interest. It's even money on Gemmill and Forbes. The encher and dance to-night will miss the presence of some of the younger element, who are going to the Balmy Beach dance at the Fire Hall. The new buoys for the sailing races will be put out to-night so that there will be no delay in to-morrow's race. The start will be off Balmy Beach at 3 p.m. All boats not there at that time will be out of the race. As the handicaps are large, every small boat is expected to compete.

LACROSSE AT HANLAN'S.

To-morrow will be the last opportunity of hearing these famous singers, Katharine Rose and Joseph Drayton, at Hanlan's Point, as those superb vocalists will leave for New York on Monday. To-morrow afternoon the Tremont and Ottawa lacrosse teams will meet. This will be one of the most interesting games of the season on account of the intense rivalry between the two clubs. Next week's bill at the Island will continue Mr. and Mrs. Lew Wrenn, the whistlers; Robert Wingate, trick horse soloist; La Tremos, aerial artist; and the dancing Johnsons.

There was a very large attendance at the meeting of the District Labor Council last night. A letter from the Hamilton Trades Council recommending the establishment of a national defence fund was received and after considerable discussion it was decided to instruct the delegate to the Dominion Trades Congress to co-operate with the delegates from Hamilton in their efforts to secure the passage of a recommendation along these lines.

A committee consisting of Messrs. Carey, Douglas, Glockling, and Simpson were appointed to confer with the Farmers' Association relative to farm labor. The Municipal Committee decided upon Wednesday, September 10th, as the date for the nomination of labor candidates for the approaching municipal elections. The Building Trades Council and the various local unions not affiliated with the District Labor Council have also been invited to assist in selecting the candidates.

The delegates to the Dominion Trades Congress were voted $50 each to defray their expenses.

Detective Forrest last night arrested Mrs. Emma Nesbitt, who was brought before High Constable Ramsden today on a charge of stealing a quantity of bed and table linen from the residence of Major John Murray, of the W. A. Murray Company, east of Victoria Park. Mrs. Nesbitt, who has been employed for some time at Mr. Murray's pleads not guilty, and was remanded to come before County Magistrate Ellis on Thursday, the 20th. Mr. T. C. Robinette appeared in behalf of the prisoner.

W. M. McMILLAN GOES FREE THE CHARGE WITHDRAWN

Cases in the Police Court—Sam Moore Pays Money to Woodworkers' Union.

When Albert Sharp, bicycle repairer, refused to guarantee the work that he had done for Edward Farquhar, the latter declined to pay. In the meantime Farquhar's son had gone home with the resuscitated wheel. In the Police Court this morning Sharp charged Farquhar with theft.

"I put on a new tire and new handle bars, and charged him 4. When I wouldn't guarantee the work he wouldn't pay," explained Sharp. "He said he warranted the tire for a year, and I asked him to say so in the receipt," Farquhar observed.

"Whoever heard of a $2.00 tire guaranteed?" asked Sharp, with some scorn. "I am willing to pay when I am satisfied with the work," supplemented Farquhar.

"In the interval," interrupted the Magistrate, "you have a tire and also a pair of handlebars belonging to Sharp. Now, you had better return the repairs to the dealer."

Farquhar was willing, and the case was adjourned for a day to let him settle it as suggested.

He Paid and Got Out. W. J. O'Hara assured the Magistrate that he was dead sober when the police arrested him as drunk.

Bellevue Whitelock and Sergeant Hales remembered O'Hara's condition, and they were quite sure that he was no blue ribbon.

The Magistrate imposed a fine of $1 and costs or 30 days. "There's only one thing that will do O'Hara any good," Mr. Curry said, "and that's a term in the Central."

O'Hara hastened to accept the Magistrate's penalty as the lesser of two evils.

It pained James Hart to be told that he had broken four panes of glass at 115 Adelaide street west. "You must pay the dollar damage," declared the Magistrate, and Hart agreed.

Annie Todd, who had raised a fine a few days before, was inebriated again last night.

John Gillman had never been drunk in her life, so she swore, impressively. "It's all spite," she added, indignantly.

"They don't seem to have enough spite to appear against you, so you may go."

John, Susan Smith, and Violet Gilbert, a tipsy trio, told the same story. Their reform had been so rigorous that they had not been in court in connection with the gurgling glass for a year or more.

They had been in other trouble, however, and "$1 and costs of 30 days" was registered.

John King had assaulted Michael Duffy, and he admitted it. The only discrepancy lay in King's opinion that he had been drunk and the constable's contention that he had been sober.

"Four dollars and costs of 30 days," Bert Calkins, who had come in on a train a night or so previously, did not know who wanted to kill him, but he thought someone had that desire. The charge against Calkins was insanity, and the Magistrate referred him to the doctor for examination.

Sequel to a Stabbing. The sequel to the Queen's Park stabbing affray came to-day, when Alex. Erskine, William Russell, John Jacobs, and Ernest Bennett were convicted of wounding Walter Welsh.

Erskine and Jacobs were given sixty days in jail, the former, the youngest of the five, taking the term with a smile. Bennett and Russell were fined $21 and costs or 30 days.

As Costello had given evidence for the Crown, he was not included in the list.

Walter Walsh and Charles Welsh told how several boys made remarks concerning the two girls with whom the brothers were conversing. "Red head, white waist," were among the expressions used. Charles Welsh threatened the youths, and one struck him in the eye, the other, the youngest of the five, followed. Walter Welsh was knifed three times.

The girls and the Walsh brothers recognized several of the five in the dock.

Paddy Mead was the star witness, though he had little ambition in that direction. He admitted that it was he who damaged Charles Walsh's optic, but he had a reason. "Walsh threatened me the next night," Mead told the Magistrate.

"Did you intend to kill Walsh?" "No, sir, not intentionally."

"Then, why didn't you run away?" "He was going to run his umbrella down my throat."

Costello gave details. Erskine did the stabbing, and Costello acknowledged that the entire affair was an organized effort. Jimmy Mead, brother of the pugnacious Paddy, mobilized the juvenile mob, and the attack ensued.

Russell, whose head still bore marks of bruises, corroborated in some degree what had been said by Bennett. "Now, what's the use of standing there lying?" he queried.

"The boy is not lying," objected Mr. Robinette. "I told him to tell the truth, and he's telling it."

The Magistrate referred into the prison a number of men involved in the Erskine and Jacobs had been convicted before, on theft charges.

Then sentence was passed. The Charge Withdrawn. The charge that William McMillan

ONTARIO EXHIBIT AT EXPOSITION Will Be a Good One This Year—Some Talk of a Provincial Building.

Ontario will be better represented at the Industrial Exhibition than ever before in her history. There will be a larger display and a better one, they will be better arranged, and the visitor from a distance will have a good idea of the products and resources of the Province.

This morning Mr. Thomas Southworth, of the Colonization Department, with Mr. W. H. Carter, of the Bureau of Mines, visited the Exhibition grounds to forward the arrangements for the Government's exhibit. To the Star Mr. Carter explained that the towns and townships of New Ontario were moving to aid the exhibit and make it a crowning success.

Mr. Carter said: "There is no doubt about it—what we need is an Ontario Government building to see that the interests of the Province are looked after properly. If this were done there would be enough room without crowding for lack of space."
