OBITUARY

James Armitage. The late James Armitage, who died on Saturday at the home of his grandson, H. B. Irwin, E.C. Weston, was born in February, 1817, at Yonge street, near Newmarket, where his father and grandfather had settled about the year 1793.

In 1838 Mr. Armitage married Elmira, daughter of Stephen White of Bloomfield, in Prince Edward County.

After marriage Mr. Armitage proceeded to New York, where he was engaged in the mercantile business.

Mr. Armitage was noted wherever he went for his kindly disposition, and he was in the truest sense one of Nature's gentlemen.
