OBITUARY.

James Workman.
 Mr. James Workman died this morning at his residence, Sixth street, New Toronto, at the age of 72 years, after a long illness. Death was due to rheumatism, from which he had suffered severely for many years.
 The late Mr. Workman was born in Lindsay, and early became interested in the lumber business, and became very well known throughout the Georgian Bay country. He started work with the Burton Lumber Company of Barrie, and remained in their employ until his life, retiring only five years ago, when compelled by ill-health to do so. Of late years he had risen to the position of manager of the company's big business in Barrie.
 Mrs. Workman and one daughter, Mrs. William Macdonald of New Toronto, survive. The late Mr. Workman, who was a member of the Anglican Church, will be buried to-morrow in Humblyvale Cemetery. He was a member of the Masonic Order.
Joseph H. Davis.
 Joseph H. Davis, who entered the office of the Canada Parliament

Mortgage Corporation with fourteen years old and continued its term for forty years, died yesterday of heart failure at 24 Crawford street.
 Mr. Davis was born in the North of Ireland, but came to Canada when young. He is survived by his wife, two sons, Harold and Raymond, of the Dominion and Hamilton banks, and three daughters, Blanche, Annette, and Stella.
Bourassa Talks.
 Montreal, Jan. 27.—Henri Bourassa delivered a powerful address last evening before three thousand people in the Monument National, denouncing Senator Casgrain's claim to the civic chair because he is a French-Canadian.

DR. A. W. CHASE'S CATARRH POWDER 25c.
 It is sent direct to the diseased parts by the Improved Blower. Heals the ureters, clears the air passages, stops droppings in the throat and relieves the bladder. It is a French-Canadian.

ANOTHER DEATH DUE TO WRECK

Hay, the C.P.R. Claims Agent, Dies at North Bay of His Injuries.

Special to The Star.
 North Bay, Ont., Jan. 27.—Thomas Hay, C.P.R. claims agent, injured in the wreck near Webbwood, on Friday, died this morning at 8 o'clock, at his own residence, North Bay; blood poisoning having set in, as a result of the wounds to the head.
 Dr. Beatty, C.P.R. surgeon of Toronto, was in consultation with the local physicians yesterday, but nothing could be done to stay the hand of death. Mr. Hay's condition was favorable until Tuesday, when a change for the worse set in. He continued to fail until death released him this morning. He was consoling to the last.
 Mr. Hay was in his sixty-fourth year. He had railroaded for forty-five years, joining the C.P.R. in 1865, after serving the Grand Trunk Railway for some years in Brockville. He was born near Kingston, married Miss Grant of Brockville, who died in July, on leaving Brockville. Mr. Hay entered the C.P.R. service at Ottawa, then came West, and was assistant superintendent of the Schreiber division for fifteen years. He came to North Bay to fill the position of claims agent, and he ably held it for ten years.
 Three children survive, Mrs. J. H. Stephens of Toronto, and Miss Mabel Hay, who has been keeping house for her father here, and Stewart Hay, of Revelstoke.
 Interment will be at Brockville on Saturday.
 Thomas Hay was known from coast to coast, was respected, and admired; his kindly heart having room for all that was good in life, and his even temperament being of the kind which wins and holds friendship.
More Identified.
 By Our Own Reporter.
 Sudbury, Ont., Jan. 27.—The body of O. S. Martin, the commercial traveler from Waterloo, was recovered from the Spanish River yesterday, the last of those known to have gone down with No. 7 on Friday. The officials have kept as careful an account as possible, and decided yesterday that all known bodies had been recovered except Mr. Martin's. His body will be taken away to-day.
 The wife from Blind River, which complicated still further the already badly mixed identification, according to which six Blind River people were on the train, has had no further confirmation, and it is hoped that this is only another of the countless queries and unfounded reports which have rained on the rescuers since the accident.
 Yesterday afternoon the diver brought up some personal effects marked "Russell Thompson, Gale-Steel Co., Orillia." He has, however, reported himself as being safe in Montreal.

Today will see the number in the hospital reduced to eleven. Alphonse Rousselle, the four-year-old boy who escaped from the first-class car; Mike Nikolanko, Joseph Maher, and H. Gredemann left for their homes.
A Pitiful Scene.
 A most pitiful scene occurred at Henry's temporary morgue last night, when Mr. Hayes of Pentaga, Mich., positively identified the four bodies who have presented the greatest difficulty in the matter of identification. A woman of about 55, another about 35 and two boys in the morgue since Sunday. The elder woman has been partially identified several times, but last night probably saw the first-class car, and recognized Mr. Hayes identified his wife Nellie as the younger of the two women, one of the boys, Charles, eight years old, his son, the other woman as Mrs. Annie Mason, and the other boy as her son, 10 years old. They were visiting John McDonald, general grocery shop, among her waste paper were little sheets of a Roman Catholic journal, with a picture of a saint and a prayer.
 Identification was given to the authorities at Craooc, and the woman was prosecuted for "irreligious behavior." She was sentenced to seven days' arrest, with 24 hours' fast, and the High Court at Vienna has confirmed the sentence.
General Booth Robbed.
 While General Booth was conducting meetings at the Opera House, Crouch and burglars entered his office and stole his private box containing several valuable articles, the loss being estimated at $30.

Insulted the Saints.
 An old woman at Craooc, Vienna, has got into sad trouble for taking waste paper on which was a picture of a saint to wrap soap and candles in at her little grocery shop. Among her waste paper were little sheets of a Roman Catholic journal, with a picture of a saint and a prayer.
 Identification was given to the authorities at Craooc, and the woman was prosecuted for "irreligious behavior." She was sentenced to seven days' arrest, with 24 hours' fast, and the High Court at Vienna has confirmed the sentence.

Orillia Was Unlucky.
 Orillia, Jan. 27.—Orillia was singularly unfortunate in the Webbwood rail-way disaster, no less than six of its victims having left this vicinity last week and taken passage on the ill-fated train. S. J. Saunders, commercial traveler, was buried from his home here this afternoon. The Kelly family had been visiting relatives in Marr township, which borders on the town and their bodies will be brought to Uppergrave cemetery for interment.
 Mr. Kelly was born in the town of Lonsford, across the lake from Orillia. He had been visiting his father since Saturday, and was returning to the lumber camp at Echo Bay. His brother has gone north for the remains. J. H. Wade, one of the injured, is a son of Robert Wade of this town.

AN ICEBOAT HAULS LUMBER ACROSS BAY

Sleighboat Hitched to One of the White Winged Outfit and Hustled Over in Style.
 Property Commissioner Harris is dreaming busily these days. Yesterday he issued an official announcement to the effect that the Bay Ice was unsafe for iceboating and skating. If he had paid a visit to the Bay yesterday he would have witnessed the unique sight of an iceboat, dragging a hobsheigh load of lumber across the ice to Hanlan's Point.
 Two teams of horses dragged the big load down to the foot of John street. There the sleigh tongue was fastened to the stern of the ice boat, and the boat was started. Once the great steamer's sail caught the 30-mile breeze and got the load going it was pie for the ice craft. Away she went at a 15-mile clip with a two-ton load of lumber, dropped it at Hanlan's Point, toted the empty sleigh back, and repeated the trip several times during the afternoon. The use of the iceboat saved hours of time.
 Half a dozen boats flew around yesterday at a mile-a-minute clip. Bay Ice unsafe? Nonsense!
 There is 14 inches of it, except where the easterly breeze broke a channel from the eastern gap to the foot of York street.

BOU FOR FRANK CARROLL.

The Army Medical Corps was certainly lucky in arranging to have Jimmy Brennan, the Philadelphia lightweight, meet Frank Carroll in the big tournament next Tuesday night. Brennan has won considerable notoriety around Philadelphia as an exponent of the many art, and Frank Carroll has for some time been recognized as one of the best boxers at his weight in the country.—Hamilton Herald.

Wheezier or Sneezier?
 Have You Heard of Hyomei For Catarrh, Asthma, and Hay Fever?
 If you wheeze or sneeze, hawk or spit, snuffle or blow, something is the matter with the membrane of your respiratory tract and you need Hyomei. And you need Hyomei because it will cure you of any catarrhal or inflammatory condition that exists.
 It isn't a stomach medicine, or spray, or douche, but a very pleasant, healing antiseptic balsam from the eucalyptus forests of Australia. You breathe this balsamic air through a small hard rubber inhaler, and it reaches every nook, corner, and crevice of the membrane, and promptly kills the catarrh germs.
 Hooper Co., 83 King St. W., will sell you a complete Hyomei (pronounced Hy-o-mei) outfit for $1.00 on the money back plan.
 I have been a victim of catarrh for many months, the glands around my eyes and nose being sore and swollen. My head felt dull and stuffy. Pains in the front and back of my head, also across my eyes, were frequent and I had trouble in breathing, especially at night, when trying to rest. I had doctor, but got no relief until after using Hyomei. This relieved me in the first twenty-four hours and in less than two weeks I was practically cured. I cannot give too much praise to Hyomei." Mrs. Mary Phillips, 155 McNab St., Hamilton, Ont.

Handicapping the Babies.

Bad Housing is One of the Things That Hurt the Young.
 The first unfair condition to which the children of the poor are subjected after coming into the world is an inequality with the offspring of the rich is the result of bad housing. Mr. Parsons gives the result of an investigation in Berlin, where of 2711 infantile deaths, 1,797 occurred in one-room apartments, 754 in two-room apartments, 122 in three-room apartments, and 40 in apartments of four rooms, and over Glasgow statistics show that the general mortality during a ten-year period in that city was 21.7 per thousand where the average occupancy per room was 1.31, and that when the average was 2.65 for each bedroom the mortality increased to 26.6 per thousand. A report recently made in regard to hygienic conditions in the District of Columbia says: "Infant mortality varies almost arithmetically with housing conditions. Although children under 5 years are only one-ninth of the population, they furnish one-third of the deaths."

Whitstable's Sewage Problem.
 Owing to pressure from the local oyster companies, the Whitstable Urban District Council on Wednesday decided by seven-votes to five, to accept Messrs. Trentham, Heming, and Saunders' report as the best means of treating the sewage of the town. The engineers estimated the cost at £21,000.
