Shortstop Under the Weather With a Bad Cold—Baltimore Team in the City.

BILL O'HARA MADE 1ST HOMER AT ISLAND

Dropped the Ball in the Right Field Bleachers—Notes of the Game and the Players.

BATTING ORDER FOR TO-DAY'S GAME.

Toronto.	Baltimore.

Dalton, r.f.	Gettman, c.f.
Jordan, lb.	Schmidt, 3b.

Game called at 2:15 p.m.

Shortstop Eddie Holly is under the weather to-day. A bad cold. Most of the Leafs are choked up with colds from the bad weather. If the Leafs had won out everybody would have said it was great game. If Holly is not able to play to-day Fitzpatrick will go in at short and either Meyer or Bradley at third. The one redeeming feature was the healthy batting of the Leafs. One noticeable feature outside of the game was the skillful side-stepping by the scorers of detailed description. What about Lou Gehrig hitting out of his turn in the seventh? Tim Jordan isn't hitting the ball with the confidence that he exhibited a couple of weeks ago, when triples and homers were daily occurrences. However, Tim is a natural hitter and is bound to get going soon. Bill O'Hara had the honor of making the first home run of the season on the home grounds. Viebuth, the young giant pitcher with Montreal, held Baltimore to two hits. Shawkey was easy for the Royals. Zimmerman's double in the eighth was the only clutch that the Cubs could collect, and it spoiled Fitzpatrick for a no-hit game. A base on balls in front of it gave Chicago its only run. Some consolation in the fact that good clubs like Detroit and Pittsburgh are doing even worse than the Leafs. Misery loves company.

There is an agitation to stop Sunday ball at Rocky Point, Providence. The wise arm-chair critics are having their chance to knock now, but they may change their tune in a few weeks. At last it happened. The Giants took one from the busted up Reds and the Reds let the recovering Phillies hook one a trimming. Meaning that Hank O'Day's team is now in second place. The White Sox unloaded a bunch of wallops in the seventh and eighth, and that was the end of Clark Griffith's pet.

As usual, while the world was going merrily on about its business, Ty Cobb was on the job. Only four times at bat and four hits, one a two-bagger, and another a home run. Charley O'Leary is out of the big league. The little black-headed infielder for years the side partner of Dutch Schaefer, was released by Detroit to Indianapolis. To-day, after many rain-weather delays, the Athletics will try to let Philadelphia see the world's championship banner. Twice the rain has stopped proceedings. Fromme being the Reds out of first place by being unable to locate the plate. Eight bases on balls were too much, and in the meantime New York was doing things to St. Louis. The Skeeters left for Montreal last night, leaving Pitcher Doerschler behind. The southpaw is under the weather. Third Baseman Janvin left for Boston for a week's rest.

FLANAGAN THINKS THAT JIM FLYNN HAS TRICK UP HIS SLEEVE

He Is Urging Johnson to Leave Nothing Undone to Be in the Pink of Condition.

WANTS FLANAGAN NOW

But the Toronto Irishman Cannot Leave Yet Awhile—Will Spend a Month in Las Vegas.

Jack Johnson is burning up a lot of real good money trying to induce Tom Flanagan, of Toronto, who is to take charge of him in his bout on July 4 with Jim Flynn to join him right away. Five wires arrived yesterday from the dusky champion, all urging Flanagan to come on at once and when the Toronto man would not promise that, he sent the sixth telegram requesting him to name the exact date when he would join him. "I cannot join Johnson right away, though at that I would like to do so," remarked Flanagan to-day. "The big fellow has not fought for two years, and a man who has been living easy for two years does not come back in a week or two to his former form. I think Johnson is underestimating this fellow Flynn. Flynn is a determined Irishman and while Johnson has been fooling around with his motor cars and having a soft time this boy Flynn has been getting himself into rare condition. I have it from a reliable source that Flynn has put on twenty pounds in weight and is building himself up with the idea of weighing around the 190 mark if he can for this bout with Johnson. Johnson, who weighs 235, will have to get down to 215 before I will be satisfied. I have wired him repeatedly advising him to get hold of half a dozen fellow boxers and wrestlers, like Monty Cutler, and get right down to real work. We will have to get down to Las Vegas at least a month before the battle to let Johnson acclimatized. A whole lot of people think Johnson will trim this Flynn in a punch. He may—but I don't think so. This Flynn is a hard, rough nut for any man to crack. This is the chance of his lifetime and don't you think for one moment that he does not fully recognize it and is prepared to take full advantage of any mismove on Johnson's part. Flynn cannot get much more than eating money out of his boot unless he trims Johnson. If he did not figure that he had a good chance he would not go in on those terms and take a lacing. No man with sense would. He has something up his sleeve for this bout and don't you forget it. I sure will be looking for it."

GOALKEEPER GIBBONS of the Toronto Lacrosse Club. Gibbons comes from Vancouver, and the club thinks he is a real good performer. His next appearance will be against the Tecumseh at the beach a week from to-morrow.

WILL CANADA SEND GYMNASTS TO SWEDEN?

There are not a few people around these parts who want to know whether or not the Olympic Committee is paying any attention to the question of sending a couple of Canadian gymnasts to the Swedish Olympic. The inquiry is forced by a knowledge of the excellent work of Keith and Elliott, two ex-Varsity gymnasts. These two lads won the Canadian competition in 1908, and represented Canada at the English Olympic games, where they were beaten by European gymnasts. They, however, learned a lot while they were over there, and since then have, according to competent authorities, developed into gymnasts of the very first water, and are now in rare form. The Olympic Committee refused the application of a Montreal gymnastic club for a place on the team on the ground that they would have no chance, but Toronto people interested figure that there is room on the team for two good men in this line of work if they can pass muster with recognized experts. What is the matter with holding a trial, either here or in Montreal, and have a committee of experts select two men, if they exhibit the necessary class?

LALONDE AT DENVER—ON WAY TO VANCOUVER.

Special to The Star. Vancouver, May 10.—"Neway" Lalonde will arrive to-morrow. He wired yesterday from Denver that he was on his way. "Mag" McGregor of last year's Tecumseh arrived here yesterday.

STUART JACKES MAY GET OUT AND STROKE ARGONAUT II. EIGHT

Seems to Be Getting the Rowing Fever—Good Crew in Prospect.

ROUGH TRIP FOR ARGO I.

Went Out in Rough Water, While Second Crew Sat in the Clubhouse.

It is possible that the appetite for rowing has revived in Stuart Jackes who is stroking the Argonaut senior eight in the absence of Taylor, and that he will be induced to stroke the second eight, which will remain at home to defend the Canadian and American championships, which the club won last season. With Jackes stroke, Russell 7, Sprague 5, the remaining seats filled with members of last year's junior crew, and Preston Coxswain, a good eight would be assembled, which might give the seniors practice until the middle of June and then give a good account of itself at the Canadian Henley and the American National. Wright is Back. George Wright's hand is better, and he is rowing again, although Boyd went out in No. 2 seat with the crew last night. The water was rough last night, but the senior eight went down to Keating's Cut through the white caps. McHenry sitting in the stern saw the first mate on a whaler. The second eight, apparently fearful that a few drops of water might streak the powder on their faces, remained on the critics' bench in the safe seclusion of the club house float. On Saturday D. E. Kertland will get the light weight senior eight (under 140 pounds) in the shell. It is probable that a crew, as strong or stronger than that of last year, will thus be put in training at an early date.

"BLIND" POOLS ON BALL GAMES EXIST

Baseball Clubs Take a Hand in the Suppression of an Evil Around New York.

Special to The Star. New York, May 10.—Officials of the baseball clubs in New York, Brooklyn, and Jersey City, have joined to-day with the police in a crusade to suppress pool selling on baseball games. District Attorney Croysey of Kings County, has taken up the legal question of selling baseball pools, which, he says, he has been informed was going on at wholesale in Brooklyn and Manhattan. Agents have been assigned by Mr. Croysey to collect evidence to be presented to a grand jury. The Police Commissioners in Jersey City have called a special meeting for next Wednesday to consider the question of baseball pools. Investigation shows that in hundreds of saloons and cigar stores tickets are sold in what is known as "blind" pools. Pool selling is said to be going on also in other cities.

NAOMI NEW FLAG SHIP OF Q.C.Y.C. FLEET

Commodore Armstrong Buys the Yawl From Tom Wrenshall.

LIVE NEWS OF AQUATICS

The flag ship of the Queen City Yacht Club this season will be the yawl Naomi, purchased last year from the Q.C.Y.C. fleet by Tom Wrenshall. He sold the craft this spring to Commodore Mervin Armstrong, and she is now being fitted out at Oakville. Shorty Hales and Sammy Salmon, of the Q.C.Y.C., have purchased the compromise auxiliary cruising sloop LaBlanche. She is a thirty-footer built by Hodson a number of years ago. She was up North several seasons and has been in Medler and Arnot's yards for two years. Hales has sold his champion sloop Halcyon, but her new owners will join the Q.C.Y.C. The purchase of the LaBlanche marks the passing from the racing game of one of the best stick handlers who ever sailed a small boat. In a stiff Hales was a rattling good man at the helm. The Queen City Yacht Club will have a fleet of five sixteen-footers this season. The club's sixteens and dinghies will race on the holiday morning. The Q.C.Y.C. will have a nice fleet of power cruisers this season. In addition to T. P. Phelan's Klatawa, Lou Martin's Gypsy, Patterson's Florence, Liscombe's Arrow, there will be a new 35-foot cruiser owned by Noverre. The Q.C.Y.C. will hold a dance to-night. The opening function of the summer program will be held a week from to-night. The Parkdale Canoe Club will hold the last paper chase of the season to-morrow at three o'clock. A London cable says two American colleges have made offers to Arnet, the sculler, as coach. Arnet will come to Canada and may row Durran on Toronto Bay. Dan O'Donoghue, a Diamond Sculls winner, will be stakeholder in the Arnet-Barry race for the championship of the world. Dan O'Donoghue, who pulled No. 7 in the Ottawa crew at Henley last summer, was stricken with appendicitis yesterday afternoon and was operated on immediately. His condition is serious, but the doctors have hopes that he will survive. O'Donoghue is secretary of the Ottawa Amateur Athletic Association, and former secretary, treasurer of the Ottawa Football club.

TRACK AT ISLAND FOR EATON GAMES.

The committee appointed by the C.A.A.U. to look after the track at the Island Stadium was over yesterday afternoon and it was decided to have more cinders laid on the track, as well as have one of the city's steam rollers do the work of getting the kilks flattened out where the athletes will perform at the Eaton A.A. athletic meet on June 1. Mr. Soiman assured the committee that nothing will be left undone to have the track and field in the very best possible condition for this coming monster meet.

DUFFERIN PARK SATURDAY.

St. Mary's will make an attempt to break their losing streak when they clash with the Park Nine in the City Amateur League feature at Dufferin Park to-morrow. The Salts, like the Leafs, are slow starters, but they have the stuff in their line-up and they will come with a rush when they do get going. The Wallingtons and Dufferins will probably spring a new twirler to-morrow. Bill Phyle will handle the indicator.

MUST TOSS CUPS AND TROPHIES AWAY

If Amateurs are to Play Ball With or Against Professionals.

EXTENT OF C.A.A.U. RULING

There are a whole lot of very anxious amateur baseball players around this town since the announcement yesterday that the C.A.A.U. would draw the curtains upon any amateur who participated in a game in any of the local leagues in which professional athletes played. "How far does this thing go?" Walter Trivet, the secretary of the Ontario branch, was asked to-day. "The committee has decided that they will not allow amateur athletes to play with or against professionals in any ball game where a gate is taken or a trophy played for," was the reply. "In the case of leagues like the Northern League, which plays at Varsity Stadium, or the City Amateur League, which plays at the Toronto Senior League, the Amateur League, or the Vermont League the question is more difficult, for while there is no gate because there is no enclosed field, the gate is passed, and everybody is expected to contribute for the privilege of looking on. In these and similar cases the committee decided that the clause applying to amateurs competing with or against a professional for a prize applied to them inasmuch as the trophies in those leagues played for a cup or for gold medals or watches." "Then if trophies and medals and watches are withdrawn there will be no interference?" Trivet was asked. "A Bad Situation. That is it," was the reply. "The whole trouble is that baseball has been allowed to slide and pros and amateurs allowed to mix so long that it is a difficult situation for us to handle now. The matter has been periodically stirred up until it was necessary to take some action. How we are to handle the problem is perplexing. I know myself that they are pro ball players, and we can deal with cases where they are concerned; but what am I going to do in other leagues where I do not know the pros? "Play detective," was suggested. "Not me," was the emphatic reply. Anyway the C.A.A.U. is after ball players, and no one will be allowed to play with or against a pro, whether there are gate receipts or a trophy is awarded to the winning team. Maybe the union will get a step better and refuse to let the Simon-pures play with the pros at all in any organized league game of any sort.
