DODGE WON THE $1,500 EDENWOLD STAKES

Raced Bernice Dizzy and Then Stalled Off King Neptune's Rush.

LARRICK IS IMPROVED

Startled Form Players With a Sudden Reversal of Form—Knights Differ Won.

Windsor, Ont., July 19.—An immense crowd, which taxed to capacity the accommodation of the course, witnessed the fourth day's races of the Windsor Jockey Club on Saturday. The weather was fine and intensely hot, but the track was in wretched condition, due to recent heavy rains. The speculation was much the heaviest of the meeting, the machines handling close to $300,000.

J. S. Ward's Dodge redeemed himself for his defeat at Fort Erie by Pesky, when he took a fair field of 2-year-olds into camp in the $1,500 Edenwold Stake the fourth and feature race. He raced Bernice into submission in the early stages, and drew away in commanding style in the stretch. King Neptune closed in resolute fashion the last furlong, and was an easy second, while Bernice hung on long enough to save third. Jos. E. Seagram's Philistine suffered interference just after the break, but was a creditable third to the last furlong, then tired.

Returning suddenly to his best form after his inferior performance of Friday, Dr. Larrick made his opposition look cheap in the third number. He raced into a long lead first quarter, and was never threatened. Progressive closed with a rush in the stretch, and easily disposed of Martian for second. Fountain Fay was never prominent.

Uncle Ben annexed the opening event, shaking off Liberty Hall rounding the stretch turn, and won easily. The latter was an easy second. Followman was lucky to be third, a head in front of Font, after being the victim of a wretched ride by Jockey Robinson. Lucky George raced well to the stretch, then retired.

Red Fire and Gartley had the second race for Canadian breds between them throughout, the former proving the gamer, and won by a neck. Marion Gaiety, the favorite, could never improve third position, and just lasted to beat Shrove Tide a head. The Millar representative closed a big gap from a slow beginning.

Venella, running to her best form, showed the way throughout the fifth event, and won by a comfortable margin. Mecllcka finished with a rush on the inside and nosed Katharine G. out for second in the last stride. The latter was a keen factor from the break. Protector, the favorite, suffered early interference, then stopped to a walk in the run home.

The Thorncliffe stable scored its first success since the Hamilton meeting, when Knights Differ captured the sixth race, his first victory in two years. He raced behind Yorkville to the stretch, then went on and won handily. Yorkville weakened when collared, but was an easy second. Sir Blaise finished resolutely to get third.

H. Doran, from whom Tom Bird took Tar Brush to Ottawa, claimed Yorkville for $850 from J. J. Ryan of Toronto, after he was beaten in the sixth race.

An upset came with the running of the concluding number. Kilday, an outsider, raced along with Birka, the favorite, the entire trip, and outgamed her by a head in the final test. After a hard drive J. H. Houghton beat Wadsworth's Last a head for third.

LIVELY SCENE AT THE PRO. LACROSSE GAME

McKenzie Cracked Longfellow, and a Woman Slapped Former's Face.

Almost a family feud was precipitated during Saturday's lacrosse game at the Island Stadium, when Fred McKenzie of the Tecumsehs slammed Ed Longfellow of Rosedale on the head, and was benched for ten minutes. When McKenzie seated himself on the penalty bench a lady clad in flowing blue silk descended upon him like an avalanche and topped off a verbal castigation by presenting Mr. McKenzie with a cuff in the face. The young woman, in her hurry, forgot to remove her parasol from her right hand, and the sunshade was considerably mixed up with McKenzie's visage. The police strolled over in the direction of the resultant uproar, and Longfellow's fair avenger wended her way back to her seat. She took a circuitous route, for a lady particularly interested in the welfare of McKenzie had taken a point of vantage on the direct return route of the Longfellow's reinforcements, and was preparing to deliver a counter attack, which the latter avoided by a change in route.

Rosedale won the game 5 to 4, though Tecumsehs had "Red" Donihee and Rosedale was minus George Kalls. It was a good, hard game, but Tecumsehs were too selfish with the ball.

Barber, who replaced Kalls on the Rosedale team, played well, and was responsible for the goal which gave victory to the Blue Shirts. The teams:

Tecumsehs — Goal, Kinsman; point, Graydon; cover-point, Powers; defence, Felker, McKenzie, and Stagg; centre, Dandeno; home, Spellen, Donihee, and Querrie; outside home, Durkin; inside home, Carmichael.

Rosedale—Goal, Holmes; point, Harshaw; cover-point, Yeaman; defence, B. Green, Braden, and Harrison; centre, Longfellow; home, Denneny, J. Green, Barber; outside home, Barnett; inside home, Warwick.

Tecumseh spare—Whitehead.

Referee—T. Humphrey.

Judge of play—H. Lambe.

That Weston are again the team to beat for the O. A. L. A. intermediate title was clearly shown on Saturday at the Island Stadium, when they defeated Iroquois 12 to 4. Despite the fact that Iroquois led 4 to 3 at half-time, last year's champions came right back in the last half and had things all their own way. They scored on nine occasions, while Manager Ross' team was unable to beat Rowntree once. The teams:

Weston (12)—Goal, Rowntree; point, Holly; cover, McEwen; first defence, Laceby; second defence, Ramshaw; centre, Clayton; first home, Coulter; second home, Dickens; outside home, H. Coulter; inside home, R. Smith.

Iroquois (4)—Goal, F. Ross; point, Richards; cover, Rowland; first defence, Newell; second defence, L. Ross; centre, F. Newton; first home, McKee; second home, Smith; outside home, F. Rowland; inside home, John.

Referee—Frank Doyle.

Cornwall beat Nationals 7 to 5 right on Nationals' home grounds Saturday.

A NEW CYCLE RECORD.

Chicago, July 19.—A world's amateur bicycle record was claimed to-day for Ernest Kockler of Chicago, who rode two miles in 4.05 in a race here last night. The former record was made by John B. Hume of Salt Lake City in 1905.

GOOD CRICKET SHOWN IN SATURDAY'S GAMES

Yorkshire Continue to Climb the C. & M. Championship Ladder—Beat Dovercourt.

JOY'S GOOD BOWLING

Moynston of Grace Church Gave Fine Exhibition of Bowling in City League Game.

By E. S. Jackson.

Yorkshire Society cricketers have climbed one more rung of the ladder at the top of which will be found the championship of the Toronto Church and Mercantile League. They played and defeated Dovercourt on Saturday with a score of 52 to 42, the low scoring being very largely due to the condition of the grounds upon which the game was played at Trinity College. The cricket pitches at Exhibition Park, upon one of which the Yorkshire Club play their home matches, are being relaid, the scene of Saturday's game was changed in consequence, and the opposing teams had to be content with a wicket upon which little preparation had been bestowed.

Winning the toss, Yorkshire batted first, opening with F. Joy and Walter Ledger, the latter making his first appearance for a C. and M. League team. Although he has played for many years for Toronto and other big clubs during his long and successful career, his sympathies have always been with the men representing his old county, for whom this year he has on several occasions rendered valuable assistance as umpire. On Saturday he was included in the eleven, and although he failed to get into double figures, he batted well and showed that there was "life in the old dog yet." Joy played into hard luck, being run out before he had had an opportunity to score. B. Crowthers, another recruit, also drawn from Toronto Club, only made 7, and J. W. Priestly had to be content with a single. Four of the wickets were down for 18 runs, but young Tom Priestley and George Goodaire put some ginger into the batting and carried the score to 38 for five, Goodaire with 12 beating his partner a single run. S. Welsh (8) was the next highest scorer. Some fairly good fielding was shown by the Dovercourt men, and three smart catches were brought off. Butterfield bowled well, getting six wickets for 18 runs. The other trundlers were Bodger, Denton, and Jennings, each of whom secured a wicket for 16, 9, and 0 respectively. Against the bowling of Joy and J. W. Priestley only one Dovercourt batsman, Bodgery, succeeded in doing anything worthy of mention. He played a very nice innings, and his 17 was made up of stylish strokes. Paton and Butterfield each contributed half a dozen. Joy clean bowled six wickets for 16, and Priestley's four only cost three runs. As the season advances the prospects of Yorkshire qualifying for the final league game looks very hopeful.

St. Cyprians Defeat Eatons.

In the centre division of the C. and M. League, St. Cyprians are making a good showing, and the contest between them and the Albions is likely to be a very close one. By their win over Eatons at Centre Island on Saturday, St. Cyprians have now won four and lost two league games, whilst the Albions have also won four and lost one. Upon a ground totally unfit to play cricket on—described by an onlooker as "the graveyard of a bowler's reputation"—St. Cyprians beat Eatons by 55 runs, the scores being 135 to 80. Three Eaton batsmen obtained double figures—Jepson 27, Mollineux 18, and Morrow 12—and, having regard to the character of the pitch, batted well. The Churchmen's bowlers were by no means so successful as they have previously been this season, and unless the Island crease is improved the league should, I think, make some arrangements if possible whereby the games scheduled to be played across the Bay should be transferred to some other ground. The wickets fell to W. Davis (7 for 40), E. Davis (1 for 17), F. Colborne (1 for 5). Five St. Cyprians men succeeded in getting into double figures, and considering that the bowling could not be depended upon, gave a good exhibition. Stokes and Allshire made 26 and 21, respectively; Beasley hit up 20; Hall made 16 and W. Davis 11, whilst Gering was next in the list with 9. The Big Store men tried four bowlers with the following result: Jepson, 3 for 54; Spooner, 3 for 35; Perkins, 2 for 19; Chilman, 2 for 8.

Grace Church Still Unbeaten.

Grace Church first eleven recorded another win on Saturday when in a City League game they easily defeated Parkdale with a score of 160 to 21. The feature of the game was the very fine bowling of M. M. Moyston, whose slows completely baffled the Parkdale batsmen. He bowled a very good length, broke at will both ways, and obtained 6 wickets for 8 runs, whilst C. Groves, the club's "demon" bowler, got the other four for seven runs. Only 16 were scored off the bat, the other six runs being extras. Although Wilson sent down an exceedingly good ball, the Grace Church men were all in fine form with the bat, and the fielders were kept continually on the jump. Jim Colborne played a very fine innings for 52, and made the boundary no less than six times. Beardall again showed good form, and like Paris, who made 22, had three fours in his score. Attwood, with two fours in a score of 20, was run out whilst batting freely; Peel added 14 and Roberts made 13. Wilson got four of the wickets for 44 runs; Thetford, 2 for 19; and Millwood had 20 runs hit off him before he succeeded in bowling the Grace Church "skipper."

St. Matthias, 79; West Toronto, 22.

St. Matthias "put it all over" West Toronto on Saturday on Trinity College grounds, and the Junction men are talking of starting a dairy with the ducks' eggs which they manufactured in their miserably poor innings of 22. Glass scored 9, Keene 6, and Wilson 3; all the others were powerless in opposition to the bowling of Arthurs, 7 for 6, and Dunning, 3 for 12. St. Matthias totaled 79, 39 of which went to the credit of Townsend and 19 to Horton, both of whom batted well. Wilson was West Toronto's chief bowler, with 5 wickets for 14; Glasson got 3 for 33, and Collinge 1 for 9.

A Win for Olivet.

With a score of 71 to 43, Olivet beat Grace Church "B." The game was played on Varsity Lawn, and the visitors gave an exhibition of big hitting. R. Lockley, 19; C. J. Lockley, 13; Worthington, 12, and Oakden, 10, were the chief run-getters for the winners, against whom Walter Robb, 8 wickets for 36, bowled in good style. Roland Hill and Pettipiere did best with the bat—17 and 10—for Grace Church, who were up against smart fielding and good bowling. H. Green was credited with 5 wickets for 16; T. Green, 4 for 25.

An EYE on the SPORTING WORLD

Alex. Romeril, the former Toronto Canoe Club hockey player, who has been in Winnipeg for two years, is back in town on a holiday. Romeril is playing senior hockey in the Manitoba capital.

I. E. Sanborn, veteran baseball reporter, to-day claimed the world's record for "covering" the national pastime. Yesterday's White Sox-Red Sox battle was the 2,000th big league game Sanborn has reported since he joined the Chicago Tribune staff. He doesn't know how many he covered before that.

Walter Johnson apparently can do other things besides pitch. Pinch-hitting in the ninth, Papa Johnson drove in the tieing run against the luckless Indians.

"Shucks," said Mr. McInnis, "I'm going to show this guy Cobb some real hitting," whereupon he made two doubles and three singles in five times up. Tyrus trailed with only three hits. The Tigers, however, had reinforcements, and won 11 to 7. Familiar figures, those.

Another famous rowing Blue, the ninth, died for his country when Lieut. G. E. Fairbairn was killed in action in northern France. Fairbairn rowed twice in the English University boat race, being No. 2 in the winning Cambridge eight of 1908 and No. 7 in the crew of 1911, when Oxford won easily in the record time of 18 minutes 29 seconds.

MEMBERS ENLIST; TOURNAMENT DROPPED.

The Victoria Quoiting Club will hold a club handicap to-night at 7.30 on the club grounds, Riverdale Park, as a preparatory workout for the league match on Wednesday night. It has been decided to drop the club's annual tournament because a large number of the club members have gone to the front. This will be in a measure replaced by a one-day club tournament, of which notice will be given later.

LEAFS AGAIN SPLIT UP A DOUBLE-HEADER

Won First Game 5 to 4, But Dropped the Second 7 to 6 at Harrisburg.

Harrisburg, Pa., July 19.—The Leafs, with three stars of the big show guarding the outer defences, made an even break in the final double tilt with the Indians Saturday. The scores were: Toronto 5, Harrisburg 4; Toronto 6, Harrisburg 7.

Toronto won the first game in the ninth, when Kocher's mighty clout to Witter and Heckinger's misplay at the plate permitted him to tally the final and winning run. In the second game Harrisburg rallied its forces, descended on McTigue in two innings, and gathered enough runs to win by 7 to 6.

In the first game Herbert and Enzmann had little to offer which was not met by the batters, but rapid and at times brilliant fielding kept the score down. Gilbert, the visitors' centre fielder, who collapsed with the heat, was an important factor in deciding the issue of the opening game. Five times did the Indians send mighty clouts into his territory, and each time he rose to the occasion and retired the batter. Other and numerous drives came into his territory, and each was fielded perfectly. Toronto was unable to send a runner across the pan until the sixth, when Enzmann walked Herbert and Gilbert. A single by Rath sent the pitcher across with the opening run for the Leafs, and Williams' clout scored Gilbert.

Again in the seventh did the Leafs pound Enzmann hard and two more runs were added, Graham and Ball counting. The final run came in the ninth, when Zimmerman had tied the score for the Indians. Kocher drove a long single over first base, went to second when Wares knocked a liner to Tooley which the latter found too hot for his liking, then cavorted round third and home on the same. Tooley made a perfect throw to the plate, and Heckinger had him out by two feet, but dropped the ball.

The Second Game.

The second game saw both teams develop a sudden batting streak. Chabek and McTigue mounted the hill, but each was forced to give way before the game had gone many innings. Chabek left in the third, but McTigue lingered until the fifth, when he weakened suddenly and the Indians drove in two runs. With the bases loaded and none down he passed out, and Luque was rushed to the rescue.

Schacht had been sent to the box, and Manager Zimmerman, seeking a hurler who could stop the visitors, saw Kraft innocently warming up during one of the lulls of the game. One minute later the first sacker was on the mound twirling the game of his life. Rath succeeded in driving a single to centre, but the hitting stopped then, Kraft retiring the side without a run. More than this, he fanned on four pitched balls Ted Cather, the hard-hitting right fielder of the Leafs.

Toronto hit the ball hard in the final game, but were no better than the Indians in this respect, each of them poling out ten sizzling drives. One thing the Canadians made which Harrisburg was unable to accomplish was McTigue's home run in the third inning.

SUPERB RACING AT NATIONAL REGATTA

Alexandra Skiff Won 16-Foot-Class Event in Exciting Finish.

In a rousing reefing breeze from the north-west the National Yacht Club held its open regatta Saturday on a lake course just outside of the new Western gap.

The racing was full of excitement and thrills for both spectators and sailors, for the quick, hard puffs had the boats scudding before them like feathers adrift, or rolling up on their beams end as if another pound's weight of wind would send them clean over.

In spite of the fact that the boats engaged were all dinghies and skiffs only one upset occurred. "Bud" Howard of the Toronto Canoe Club went over while gybing around the home buoy the first time around the course. He was fourth in the race then.

There were eight starters in the 16-foot class. Rear Commodore Mike Crosbie of the Alexandra Yacht Club sailed Baines brothers' Zephyr to victory in this race after a close, hard race with Alf. Jones' skiff from the National Yacht Club. Jones led the race most of the way, battling it out with his brother. Harry Jones' boat, sailed by "Dot" Turrall, with Zephyr lying a close third. On the final leg Crosbie drove Zephyr to the front in a couple of hard puffs which stood the National boats on their beams-end, and won by a couple of boat lengths from Alf. Jones' boat, with Harry Jones' boat right on top of the leaders. The result:

Sixteen-foot skiffs:	Start.	Finish.
1. Bank Bros., Alex	3.00	4.06.00
2. Alf. Jones, N.Y.C.	3.00	4.06.10
3. Harry, Jones, N.Y.C.	3.00	4.06.20
4. Frank Ward, A.Y.C.	3.00	4.06.20
5. W. G. Reilly, A.Y.C.	3.00	4.10.00
6. G. Jenkins, N.Y.C.	3.00	4.10.20

Tommy Turrall found the heavy wind to the liking of his 16-foot dinghy Go On, and she gave the fleet a good trimming. George Cornell of the Queen City Yacht Club, off to a beautiful start, led to the first buoy, where Go On came along, and going to the front was never headed.

Sixteen-foot dinghy race:

3. R. Hall, N.Y.C.	3.05	4.23.40
4. Geo. Cornell, Q.C.Y.C.	3.05	4.24.40
5. E. Munday and Schults, N.Y.C.	3.05	4.24.50

There were 17 starters in the open dinghy race. Jimmie Alexander of the National Club was leading the fleet on the second round, when he fouled Pete Werthner of the Q.C.Y.C., and promptly showed his sportsmanship by dropping out. Art Turrall, who was third, then went on and won. Oakwell and Colwell of the T. C. C. worked into second place on the last buck, nosing out Dug. Addison of the R.C.Y.C.
