JOE BREEN SENSATION OF OSLER VICTORIES

Toronto Team Won Two Games and Tied Another in Day—Breen's 3 Homers

By FRED HAMILTON
Special to The Star

Winnipeg, July 2.—The Osler Ball Club tried the iron man stunt of playing three ball games here against three different teams from the Winnipeg Senior League and nearly got away with three victories. They won two games and tied the night game. Joe Breen's hitting and fielding has been the feature of all three games and the fans here say he is the best ball player they have ever seen. The Osler Club play one more game tonight and then journey to Port Arthur and Fort William for three games.

Before a crowd of 6,000 fans, which packed the park to capacity, Oslers grabbed off the first game of the series with the western teams. The Arena's, looked on as the best in Winnipeg, went down to defeat before the masterful pitching of the Osler ace, Joe Spring, by the score of 5 to 0. Spring only allowed four hits and had the game in hand all the way. The only real chance Arenas had was in the fifth when Carr singled and Downey walked, but Spring tightened, making the next two hitters fly out and getting the next hitter to hit to himself. Oslers went to the front in the second. Breen singled, Hoose singled, Jones bunted to pitcher, Reid doubled, scoring Breen, Crilly doubled to left, scoring Hoose and Reid. Oslers scored one more in the fifth. Fleming got hit, Hughes flied to right. Fleming stole second. Egan doubled to left, scoring Fleming. Crilly homered in the ninth for Oslers' last tally.

Score:		R.	H.	E.
Oslers	030 010 001—5	8	1
Arenas	000 000 000—0	4	0

Rasson Pitched Well

The second game went the same as the first; Oslers beating the Columbus club 9 to 3. Jack Noble started but developed a stitch in the third inning and retired in favor of "Irish" Rasson, who tied the westerners up in knots for the next four innings, and with the score 9 to 1, Charlie Ellwood pitched the last two innings; Columbus scoring two runs in the ninth. The Columbus club played ragged ball and, mixed with Oslers' timely hitting, the ball game was easy for the easterners. Joe Breen's fielding was marvelous, and he has taken taken Winnipeg by storm.

Score by Innings:		R.	H.	E.
Oslers	110 140 020—9	10	3
Columbus	110 000 002—3	4	6

The Tie Game

The third game was the tightest of the series, ending in a tie game between Oslers and Tigers, 7 to 7. Jack Noble went right back, but still had the stitch in his side, and "Irish" Rasson again finished the game and his performance was real, and the four runs that were scored against him were no fault of his, two errors by Hughes and Reid really being the cause of all runs. The old ball game looked bad for Oslers going into the last inning, but two hits, a walk and Joe Breen's hard-drive scored the two runs that tied up the game.

Joe Breen continued his sensational ball playing by hitting three home runs and a single and he also played another sensational game at short; two of his homers went into the stands in left field, which is just about the same distance as at Hampden Park. His other homer was a tremendous drive to centre field.

Score by Innings:		R.	H.	E.
Oslers	010 103 002—7	11	2
Tigers	012 031 000—7	6	1

CRICKET NOTES

By E. S. JACKSON

Ontario v. Quebec (first day's play), Ontario, 51 and 37 for 3; Quebec, first innings, 188. Play resumed to-day.

Grace Church, 226; Oakville, 56; council game at Oakville.

Yorkshire, 161; Rosedale, 86 for 6.

Albions, 236; Bell Telephone, 65; a preliminary dominion championship game.

☆ ☆ ☆

The Albions more than justified their decision to challenge again this year for dominion championship honors by their easy victory over the Bell Telephone club at St. Andrew's College ground yesterday in the first of the John Ross Robertson Cup games. They scored 236 runs and got their opponents out for the low score of 65. The team with which the Albions were defeated in the semi-final by Toronto last season has been somewhat strengthened this year, and it will surprise no one if, after the excellent showing they made yesterday against a fairly strong eleven they qualify for a trip to Montreal in September in quest of the big piece of silverware which the McGill club now hold.

☆ ☆ ☆

The Bell Telephone was outclassed in every department of the game, and though victory had been predicted for last year's city champions, few of the numerous spectators looked for such a one-sided match and everyone expected to see the Bell give a better account of themselves, especially in the field. Their ground fielding was positively the poorest I ever remember seeing in a cup game, and it is safe to say that many of the runs scored by the Albions could have been saved had W. Butterfield's men shown more activity in the field. They were not so bad in the early part of the Albion's innings, while F. Buckley and D. MacNab, both bowling well, succeeded in despatching four of the best batsmen—Moyston (8), C. Wilson (15), E. L. Cross (1) and A. Wakefield (2)—for 29 runs, but when W. C. Greene and Dr. Morrison furnished the fifth wicket partnership and rendered a change of bowling necessary the fielding went all to pieces.

☆ ☆ ☆

Neither the Albions' captain nor the doctor had done anything with men-tioning with the bat in any previous game this season, but they made amends yesterday. Greene "played himself in" in splendid fashion and then developed an exhibition of batsmanship which has deservedly won for him the honor of being one of the best and most stylish cricketers we have in Canada. He lost his associate for a well played 21 when the wicket had put on 59 runs, and then continued to play the several bowlers in fine style till the total had reached 176 for eight, 80 of which he had made when Dive "got him" off his pads. He had nine fours in his tally and has been seldom seen to better advantage. Another good batting exhibition was given by W. Adams, who laid on the wood in vigorous style and was still in possession with 71 runs to his name when the innings closed for 236, of which A. Lindsay, the last man to go in, made 14 and proved conclusively that the Albions have a tailless team. Macnab took three of the wickets for 52; Buckley two for 60, Dive one for 25, and Tate came off best with two for 10. Two of the Albions' men were run out, J. Wilson and H. Holland, the wickets being thrown away in each case.

☆ ☆ ☆

Little can be said about the Bell batting. It was a great disappointment to see two such capable batsmen as J. Tate (9) and F. Buckley (3) go for 12 runs, and when Stonewaller R. Milner (0), W. Greenwood (1), the club's century scorer of last Saturday, and D. Macnab (20), had retired only 36 runs had been registered for the five good wickets. It was reserved to E. Dive and A. Sclater, the tenth wicket partnership, to infuse a little life into the innings. Sclater played some good stroker, scored seven, and Dive went for the bowling with confidence and "carried his bat" for 20 of the total of 65, of which he and Macnab counted 40 between them.

☆ ☆ ☆

In H. Holland the Albions have a valuable aquisition to their bowling force. He captured six wickets for 23 runs and his execution with the ball was the outstanding feature of the game while the Bell Telephone were batting. Morrison was also in good form with three wickets for 26, and Cross accounted for one for 10 runs. Albions fielded faultlessly and J. Wilson kept wicket so well that not a single extra was allowed.

☆ ☆ ☆

The full scores of the respective teams are:

Albions—Moyston, b. Macnab, 8; C. Wilson, b. Buckley, 15; Greene, b. Dive, 80; Cross, b. Macnab, 1; Wakefield, b. Buckley, 2; Morrison, b. Tate, 21; Adams, not out, 71; J. Wilson, run out, 1; Roberts, c. Macnab, b. Tate, 3, W. Holland, run out, 0; A. Lindsay, b. Macnab, 14; extras, 15; total, 236.

Bell Telephone—Tate, b. Cross, 9; Buckley, c. Greene, b. Holland, 3; R. Milner, b. Holland, 0; Macnab, b. Holland, 20; Greenwood, b. Morrison, 4; Townsend, c. Holland, b. L.S.S.A. CUPS WERE WELL DISTRIBUTED

Reg Thompson, G. Browne and C. Lunt Double Winners—Some Great Racing

By LOU E. MARSH

Was there any wind for the annual regatta of the Lake Sailing Skiff Association held Tuesday and yesterday over the Queen City Yacht Club course in the harbor?

Sure tooting there was—especially on Tuesday, when twenty-four small boat sailor men sampled the bay when their racing boats tried to do a bit of submarining.

Funny thing, too, the boats that went over were the largest boats under the jurisdiction of the L. S. S. A.—the twenty-foot sloops—and they were reefed down, too.

The wind Tuesday was from the northwest, and some of the puffs which funnelled down the city streets were wicked little squalls, which hammered the racing dinghies and skiffs down on their beam ends and made their crews do a lot of acrobatics which would go big with Ringlings.

Yesterday it was much different.

In fact, the boys had to do a lot of wind-hunting yesterday, for the wind was off the south, light and full of flaws.

Some Bouquets.

The racing both days was first class, and the officials are to be congratulated on the way in which they handled the racing. And just while the bouquets are being handed around, Commodore Brown and his Q. C. Y. C. committee are entitled to a pillow of daffodils for the way in which they handled their end of the affair. They looked after the visiting sailor men admirably. They filled them up with hot dogs and dancing.

The officials in charge of the racing were Commodore T. A. E. World—Tommy World is not commodore of anything in particular just now, but he was commodore of the Q. C. Y. C. for so long that the title just naturally sticks—William Johnstone, Blake Van Wickle, William Walker, and President Tommy Turrall of the L. S. S. A., when he was not racing himself.

Hamilton Boys Win.

But let us get back to the racing.

To begin with, the Hamilton contingent from the Royal Hamilton Yacht Club and the Pals Club cleaned up the cups offered for the 16-foot dinghies and also grabbed off a first in Class "B" 14-foot dinghies. Barry of the R. H. Y. C. took the Turrall Cup on Tuesday morning. C. Lunt of the same club had the race won, but through an oversight he failed to round the starting buoy the second time around and was set back to second place, and J. Warren of Hamilton, who did the same thing, was set back to third place.

However, Lunt had his revenge, for in the afternoon he covered the course to the judges' satisfaction and won the Gooderham Cup, with H. B. Bettles of the Pals Club second and Luthie of the R. H. Y. C. third. Yesterday, in light airs, Lunt repeated and walked off with the Crosbie Cup, with Mercer and Whitaker of the Pals Club second and Warren third.

Redskin Repeats.

In the 20-foot skiff class Gordon Brown of the Toronto Canoe Club was a double winner, with Redskin, last year's class champion. Redskin took the Wrenshall Shield on Tuesday with Nameless, Taylor Brothers' new boat second, and Nancy, owned by Matthews and Awley of the T. C. C., third. Yesterday afternoon Redskin won the Walker Cup, but she was lucky to win that trophy, for "Chuck" Benson's new boat, Nurmi, of the Q. C. Y. C., sailed by her designer and builder, George Cornell, of the A. Y. C., had the race in hand when a ferry boat headed him off and gave Redskin enough advantage to win. Nameless was third.

He Has the Habit

The big feature of the racing in senior class "A" 14-foot dinghies was the double win of Commodore Reg. Thompson of the National Yacht Club. On Tuesday afternoon Thompson beat Tommy Turrall his own club mate for the L. S. S. A. championship after a keen struggle and yesterday afternoon he beat Jimmie Hyland the T. C. C. sensation by twenty seconds in a race in which Hyland twice held the lead. Thompson's strong point was going to windward. Turrall was third in yesterday's race.

Class "A" 14-foot dinghies provided a lot of smart racing. On Tuesday in the northwester, Ted Macpherson of the R.C.Y.C. came down in front with Cyril Clarke and Jack Ryder of his own club second and third. Macpherson won the Birley Cup in this race.

Yesterday in the same class Jack Robinson, of T. C. C., sailing Bill Baker's "Macaroni" in the absence of Bill, who is a senior class "A" man, won the Commeford Cup by 17 seconds from George Dingwall, Jr., of the National Yacht Club, with Macpherson of the R.C.Y.C. third.

The Class "B" Dinghies

The Tinning Cup was the trophy for the class "B" 14-foot dinghies in Tuesday's heavy weather. After a see-saw race in which several boats were on the head end of it temporarily, Mallon of the R.C.Y.C. grabbed off the gravy, beating H. Judge of the Parkdale Canoe Club 20 yards with Lou Marsh of the National Yacht Club third half a dozen boat lengths back.

Yesterday the class "B" sailors were after the new T. A. E. World Cup, and Davy Hughes of the Pals Club made every flag a winning one. Off on the head end of it he was never in trouble. He sailed a grand rate. Second up was "Skipper" D. L. Evans of the Toronto Canoe Club, with Mercer of the Pals Club third. Evans' work going to windward made the boys sit up and take notice. "The Skipper" can give the kids points yet. In fact he does better every race.

ARGONAUT CREWS FOR BROCKVILLE

Junior and Senior Eights Leave To-morrow Night for Eastern Canada Regatta

Encouraged by their sweeping victory in the Dominion Day regatta yesterday the Argonaut Rowing Club are sending their junior and senior eights to Brockville Friday night to take part in the Eastern Canada rowing races.

For the past two months Argo's junior eight have been on the water twice a day preparing for yesterday's races. They were in condition and out to win when they went to the starting buoy alongside Varsity's sterling crew a little after five o'clock. From the gun the west end club jumped into the lead and were never menaced, although the "school boys" made them row with everything they had and they were pretty well all in when they finished.

Yesterday Coach Tommy Allison announced that the crew would go to Brockville along with the seniors. At the present time the eight is stroked by Jack Hand, followed by Jack Guest, Gibson, Shaw, Chris Sinclair, Smith, Alec Edmonds, Murray Sinclair.

Coxswain Gilbert Hooey made a name for himself by the course he steered for this aggregation. From the start of the race until the finishing gun banged in his ears with air crew three and a half lengths ahead he steered his shell perfectly and kept his head while under fire.

The Argonaut senior eight were not given a race yesterday. This crew, stroked by Joe Wright, Jr., and including Roy Finlayson, Oscar Ward, Dave Soper, "Bung" Norris, Lionel Carter, Ted Punchard and Bill Munro, won the Dominion championship last year and are out to hold it. Their first race of the season will be Saturday when they stack up against the Lachine, Varsity and Ottawa eights. They have been working hard and should romp home winners. At the present time they can give any crew on the continent a real battle.

A senior four taken from this crew won their race yesterday by several lengths over their nearest contender. They were stroked by Joe Wright, followd by Roy Finlayson, Ted Punchard and bowed by Bill Munro.

"Cap" Fear's hundred and fifty pound eight showed plenty of courage when they beat the smart Varsity crew in a mile race by less than a half length. "Cap" and his men have been noted for years for their strong finishes, the hardest feat to accomplish in rowing, and yesterday he put another victory under his hat by the same method.

At the start he was left behind by several yards and it was not until past the half mile mark that he started to come up by raising his stroke slightly. As he passed the three-quarter mark he set his crew into a terrific sprint and passed the college men just before the line. It is expected that this crew will leave for Detroit a week from this Saturday.

Considerable indignation was expressed by the members of the lack-weight eight who were swamped by an R.C.Y.C. boat coming through the western gap after their hard race. The motor boat shot by close beside them and filled their shell with water. It was necessary for them to swim for the shore and empty it before they could continue on their way to the club house.
