Record Entry Is Assured For LYRA Regatta Here

By ROWAN MacDONALD

Lake Ontario's two major regattas for this year get underway in Toronto this weekend with the Queen City Yacht Club playing host to the annual Lake Yacht Racing Association regatta and the Royal Canadian Yacht Club hosting the Lake Sailing Skiff Association regatta. Combined, the two events will have over two hundred sailing and power craft ranging in size from the large cruising yawls to the small centre-board dinghies, in action.

Commodore John Welsh of the QCYC and his hard-working committees have lined up a record entry to pick up moorings and drop anchors at the club starting today. Some 130 entries have been received to date.

All yachts will be racing over triangular courses set out in the lake off Centre Island with the first division getting off to a start at 11:00 a.m. tomorrow, Sunday and Monday.

Bud Whittaker, president of the LSSA also reports a large entry for the dinghy regatta at the RCYC. He says that there will be at least 65 competitors in attendance. The LSSA races will be sailed over a triangular course set in the lake to the east of the Eastern Gap.

Main event in the LSSA regatta will be sailed in the mornings when the Douglas and Emmerson challenge trophies will be contested.

Bud Whittaker, RCYC, will defend the Douglas Cup for Canada while the RCYC three-boat team of Paul Henderson, Paul McLaughlin and Fred Buller will defend the Emmerson Cup. Challenging for the Douglas Cup from the U.S. will be Dick Besse of Skaneateles while the three boat team of Mark Coholan, Annapolis, John Seaton, Annapolis, and Charlie Shumway, Rochester, will challenge for the Emmerson Cup.

The Douglas Cup is a best of three series while the Emmerson Cup is three races, total points to count.

Reports from the Port Credit Yacht Club stated that Jack Collett arrived home from Windsor early this week with his new Owens 40-foot cutter, Dolphin III. He also owns the 5.5-metre Pleant. She will be sailed in all races by Jack Beatson.

Two new power cruisers have shown up at the PCYC, one built by J. J. Taylors and owned by Jack Soules, the other, a Chris Craft, owned by Harvey Smith. Ray Fitness had a new 38-foot sloop built in Nova Scotia and reports that she is on a flat car on her way to Toronto. Named the Cadence II, she will arrive sometime next week, too late for the LYRA and Freeman Cup race.

As the deadline draws closer, the talk on Olympic sailing seems to be increasing. Latest report is that Ottawa has been chosen as the site for the Canadian trials in the Finn class. The two 15-foot Finns in Toronto and the two in Montreal will be taken to Ottawa and four finalists will race a series. Exact dates are not set, but it is expected that the races will be held during the last week of July.

Three visitors to the east are expected in town soon from the Royal Vancouver Yacht Club for Olympic trials. Bud Roulstone will be sailing the Finn finals while Sandy Martin and Pat Leslie are coming east for the finals in the Dragon class. Both Martin and Leslie took part in the North American 6-metre championship series for The Globe and Mail Trophy last year in Bellingham Bay, Washington.

A little out of the windjamming line, but still of interest to boating enthusiasts is the report from Bob Finlayson, Commodore of the Canadian Boating Federation, on activities scheduled for Picton this weekend. Eight unlimited hydroplanes will be racing at Picton Saturday for the Harvey J. McFarland Trophy.

Canada's top "unlimited," the Miss Supertest II owned by Jim Thompson of London, will be taking part against seven of the top U.S. boats. Bill Braden of Hamilton will be at the wheel of Miss Supertest.

Milanis Check Caterers' Bid For 2nd Place

Milanis whipped Dependable Caterers, 9-5 last night and in scoring their first victory in eight starts, the winners put a damper on the Caterers' climb toward second place in the Western City senior baseball league.

Wayne McKee went the distance for the winners, and though he wobbled for four runs in the eighth inning, he steadied to take the verdict. Until the big inning, he had a four-hitter going. McKee struck out seven.

Batterymate Jimmy Liness was McKee's biggest helper at the plate. He had a homer with one on and a single with two on to drive home four runs. Teddy Metz made his one hit good for two runs, while Len Gosse had two safeties.

Dave Stephen, Don Speir and Hal Fiskari were two-hit men for the Caterers, while Bert Forbes clubbed a double in the losers' four-run inning.

People's bunched three of their seven hits off Mary Matchett of Cecil Morris in the eighth inning to break a 1-1 tie and record a 2-1 victory last night at Coxwell Stadium in an East Toronto Ladies' Senior softball game. Marg Winn, on the mound for the Jewellers, limited the Photo-Maids to five hits and struck out six. Marg helped her own cause with a pair of hits and scored the winning run. Barb Brodzinski also connected for two, batting in the clincher. Betty Cahill's triple cashed in the only marker for Cecil Morris.

In the Junior contest, Clapp's Shoes defeated Burke-Pastor, 8-3.

Sparta Blanks Olympia, 3 to 0, In National

By ED WARING

Sparta blanked Olympia, 3-0, in a poorly played National Soccer League game at Fred Hamilton Park last night.

The game was spoiled by petty fouling by both teams and toward the end, referee Tommy English ordered Gaestieger to the showers after an altercation between a couple of players from each team. This scuffle raised the ire of a couple of the fans and one was ejected from the park.

All three goals came in the final half with the winners getting two inside a couple of minutes. Prucha, Stanek and Necessanch were the goal scorers. In the dying moments Olympia missed a penalty kick.

Watson and Daugherty scored for Arsenal who defeated Mimico, 2-1, in the second half of a senior League twin bill at Earlscourt Park. Etobicoke and Saracens played to a 0-0 tie in the opener. Harrison tallied for Mimico.

OUTDOOR TRAIL

By BOB TURNBULL

Jasper Park, Alta., June 28 (Staff). — Notes from a vacation diary. Westward bound on CNR's Continental, rocks, lakes and forests of Northern Ontario seemingly endless. Then into Manitoba to the Prairies.

Let no one tell you the Prairies monotonous to travel across. Far horizons over gently rolling green. More trees than one would anticipate. The bald Prairie is farther south.

Ducks in incredible numbers in countless sloughs. These look like miniature regatta courses as waterfowl swim with wakes like motorboats or frantically flap into the air.

Roads ruler-straight from horizon to horizon. Jack rabbits galore sprint away from the rumbling train. A few deer, too, leap through the underbrush.

At evening into Saskatoon. Neat, clean, inviting city. Then across the night past sleeping Unity, Saskatchewan, and into Edmonton. Splendid place this, with admirable briskness about it. Fine ultra-modern civic centre rising here—Toronto take note.

The Continental rolls through Alberta. Don't mourn the passing of the steam locomotive. The new diesels are clean, no soot, no grit and smooth.

* * *

Near Bickerdike the first glimpse of the Rockies in the purple distance. Soon the rails are snaking through the mountain passes.

Then Jasper. To the CNR's luxurious Jasper Park Lodge in a setting of breathtaking beauty. Beyond gemlike Lac Beauvert stands the lady of the Rockies—Mount Edith Cavell, more than 11,000 feet high. Superlatives aren't superlative enough to describe the scenic splendors here. Sunset and the dying rays paint the glaciers and snow crown on Edith Cavell an incredibly lovely pastel pink, like cake frosting.

Next day to Maligne Lake. By boat down to the far, mountain girt end. Sunny, but at 6,000 feet the nearby snowfields send a whisper of a breeze as clean and fresh as peppermint.

What glorious colors in the water. From pale, pale green to iridescent turquoise.

Surely there can be no more superb scenery anywhere than Maligne Lake.

* * *

Good fishing water for speckled trout, or eastern brook trout as the westerners call them. Fast, tumbling Maligne River also excellent water.

Back at Jasper Park Lodge. Down to the edge of the manicured lawn. Cast spinner into Lac Beauvert and nail a frisky brookie about 13 inches long.

Jasper Park abounds in wildlife, bears galore, deer, gophers, beaver. Saw one cougar loping along the river flats.

Talking of bears, few days before the lodge opened for the season, one happy bruin was discovered bathing in the fancy ornamental pool at the main entrance.

Packing again and now away on the Super Continental to Vancouver Island, where let's hope the salmon will co-operate with our lures.

Concords Lead On Two-Hitter By Jack Rossen

Jack Rossen pitched a sparkling two-hitter last night in fashioning a 13-0 shutout win for Concords over Columbus Grads. The victory hoisted the winners into first place in the Western City senior baseball league.

Rossen struck out six, issued only one walk and the first 14 of his rivals went down in order. Norm Medline with a single and Lawson Mitchell with a two-base hit were the only Grads able to solve Rossen's delivery.

Alex Stremicki with three hits, one a triple and Frank Repchek with two safeties, one a home run, were the Concords' heaviest hitters. Stan Kuzwa, Arnold Ford, Ron Hastings and Bill Anderson were also two-hit men. Every Concord had a hit and they all but one scored.

Virginians Beat Red Wings, 5 to 1

Rochester, N.Y., June 28 (AP). Leffy Niles Jordan, a former Red Wing pitcher, stopped his old mates for the second time in a week tonight when he six-hitted Rochester to give Richmond a 5-1 victory and a 2-2 split in the series.

NHL Clubs to Help Revive Ottawa Hockey

Ottawa, June 28 (CP).—Montreal Canadiens of the National Hockey League made it clear tonight they intend to bring hockey back to Ottawa with a bang.

General manager Frank Selke of the Canadiens told the annual meeting of the Ottawa and District Sportsmen's Association that every NHL club with the exception of Toronto Maple Leafs has verbally agreed to play an exhibition game here next fall against the new Ottawa Junior Canadiens.

The general manager of the 1955-56 Stanley Cup champions said the Leafs declined to say definitely whether they would play here because they usually refrain from playing exhibition games during the season.

The Ottawa Junior Canadiens, transferred from Montreal earlier this year, will play regular league and Laurier Cup games against Ontario junior A teams and meet Quebec Hockey League opposition after being strengthened by professional players.
