RCYC skipper to represent Canada in Douglas Cup races.

With the Yachtsmen

By ROWAN MacDONALD

There are no complaints from the yachtsmen this weekend in so far as the weather was concerned. Saturday dawned with light southeasterly winds and a clear sky, with the same conditions prevailing Sunday but winds increasing to a steady 20 miles per hour.

The Queen City Yacht Club officially opened its 1957 season with a fleet review by Commodore Robert Johnson. The club's fleet lined the lagoon in front of the club and the commodore passed all the boats in review, using a power cruiser as his reviewing stand. It was a fine event with all members present enjoying the entire day. The day was topped off with the Commodore's Ball in the club house Saturday evening.

* * *

Boulevard Club's dinghy and crusader fleets raced on Saturday with Keith Forbes taking honors in the dinghy class, followed by Peter Jarvis and George Fraser in that order. Wally Williamson topped the crusader fleet, followed by John Quail and Bill Stookes.

On Sunday, the dinghy race was postponed due to the stiff winds, but the crusaders went out and did one lap of the course. Bill Stookes won this race, with Don McGregor second and John Quail third.

RCYC's fleet of keel boats and dinghies took to their respective triangles on Saturday afternoon for some fine racing. Bob Grant, sailing White Wings, crossed the finish line less than two minutes behind Commodore Engholm's Ivanhoe but took the race on corrected time by just over a minute to win the 15-mile race for division 1 CCA boats.

Ted Booth kept the Norseman's winning streak in shape by taking the eight-metre race quite handily. His closest competitor was Fred MacKenzie in the Invader, finishing almost 10 minutes behind. Norman Robertson sailed Quest into third place, with Dave Howard in Venture, fourth, and Bill Inrig in Vision, fifth.

In the six-metre class, it was Bill Gooderham in Buzzy III crossing the finish line over five minutes ahead of second-place Bibis with Conrad Tawastsijerna at the helm. Reg Dixon in Circe was third, Ed Barker in Titia, fourth and Reg Walsh in Aphrodite, fifth.

Newman Fairhead in the Gauntlet took honors in the Maple Leaf class with Jack Adams in Pelican second. Bill Moran in Aquila won the Small Cruiser class on corrected time but was actually second boat across the finish line as Ed Lawless in the Seneca crossed first. On corrected time Seneca finished fourth. F. Marani in Iska was second on corrected time, and Bill Hall in Nayada third.

Drs. Black & MacDonald in the Okalina nipped over the finish line just over a minute ahead of second place Paul Phelan in Mia to win the Dragon class race. Fred Baker in Bajads finished third with Walter Windyere in Jan, fourth. Bill Spencer in Spookhaun won the Star Class race, followed by Larry Leonard in the Spook. Dick Vine took the 14-foot dinghy race followed by Fred Buller, Mary McLaughlin and Paul McLaughlin in that order. Ann MacIntosh made it two in a row taking honors in the 12-foot dinghy class. Ruth Gooderham was second.

The LSSA announced that Paul McLaughlin, RCYC, will represent Canada in the Douglas Cup match race to be sailed at Oakville over the July 1st weekend in conjunction with the LSSA regatta. His opponent from south of the border will be George O'Day from Marion, Mass. The American team for the Emmerson Cup challenge series, to be sailed at the same time as the Douglas Cup, will be made up of Mark Cobolan, Walter Lawson and Stewart Walker, all from Annapolis, Maryland. The Canadian team for the defense of the Emmerson Cup has not as yet been named. Three trial races were sailed yesterday in strong winds and at the conclusion it was Paul Henderson of the RCYC and Al Rae, Jr. of the QCYC leading. No further plans regarding further trial races have been announced.

Dick Vine pulled a chain plate in the second race and lost his mast overboard, while Doug Hall, in the same race, flipped over at the end of the leeward leg during a gybe.
